

Hollywood Theatre. Premiering are two Oregon productions, Want + Need and Lesbian Movie 2000. Want + Need is a documentary about queer desire and fantasy by filmmakers Micki Poklar and Daniela Crocetti. Lesbian Movie 2000 was filmed in a bedroom at a party where a camera was set up—expect to recognize lots of faces! Tickets are $4 at the box office, 4122 N.E. Sandy Blvd.

High-stylin' dogs need digs

Greyhound Pets of America has more than 120 rescued greyhounds needing homes. Despite being great runners, they don't need a huge house like you might imagine, just regular exercise. There is much to recommend about these sleek living sculptures—they aren't known as chewers or diggers, they're very playful and affectionate, yet they also sleep a lot. And because they're carefully bred to be good racing dogs, they lack many of the health problems such as hip dysplasia that more popular, overbred breeds suffer from.

Greyhound Pets of America also brings dogs ready for adoption to area Petco and PetSmart stores most Saturdays. For more information or a schedule of those store visits, call 800-366-1472 or visit the Internet site www.open.org/greyhnd.

A class act

If k.d. lang's not your thang, perhaps you'd prefer to hear what noted lesbian author Jeanette Winterson has to say when she appears Nov. 9 at the Schnitz as part of the Portland Arts and Lectures series. Her novels include Oranges Are Not the Only Fruit, Sexing the Cherry and her latest, The Powerbook. Her style is cutting-edge and elegantly combative, and the New York Times says she "has reinvigorated the novel." Winterson speaks—in what will surely be a cool Brit accent—7:30 p.m. at 1037 S.W. Broadway. Tickets are $20 from 503-227-2583 or area bookstores.

Dance like an Egyptian, schmooze like a mogul

My how time flies when you're havin' fun! Join the gals at the Egyptian Club and help them celebrate their fifth anniversary Nov. 4. The party gets going at 9 p.m., and you can expect prizes and probably some surprises. You'll find the club at 3701 S.E. Division St.; call 503-236-8689 for all the skinny.

Then on Nov. 13 the E Club holds a Women in Business Networking Party. Meet other women business owners and executives, exchange cards, and do some serious interfacing. There will be prize drawings from the collected business cards; be there between 6 and 8 p.m.

If you find yourself on the Central Oregon Coast on Nov. 12, drop by the spectacular Connie Hansen Garden and help raise money for the ongoing programs of the Coastal AIDS Network. The second annual Evening in the Garden takes place from 4 until 7 p.m. at the garden on Northwest 33rd Avenue in Lincoln City. Enjoy hors d'oeuvres from Blackfish Cafe, Oregon wines, music by Victory for Our Planet and a silent auction. Suggested donation is $20 a person and $35 a couple. RSVP to 541-994-5597.

He's queer, he's here, go see him!

New music, visual art and fashion collide in a groundbreaking dance performance when White Bird presents Stephen Petronio Company in the West Coast premiere of Strange Attractions Nov. 15 at the Schnitz. The San Francisco Examiner calls Petronio "the most fearlessly inventive, most audaciously virtuosic dancer-choreographer of his generation."

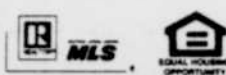

The evening will be enhanced by commissioned scores from Michael Nyman and James Lavelle and set design by celebrated sculptor Anish Kapoor. The show begins 7:30 p.m. at 1037 S.W. Broadway. Tickets are $18-$39 from Fastixx; for details call 503-245-1600 or visit www.whitebird.org.
