 Friday, October 10, 7:30PM at Cinema 21, 616 NW 21st Ave

Three actresses at various places on the Hollywood food chain navigate the minefield of love, aging and ambition. Oh, and they're all played by men. Evie, an aging actress in the twilight of her career, drinks her way through the day. Her roommate, Coco, yearns for one thing: to have a child with the doctor that performed her abortion. When Varla, a country girl with a bit of an eating disorder joins the household, their aspirations and sordid pasts come to an unforgettable boiling point.

ment from J.R. Pella of Black Angel, D.J.'s Zhane and Stormy spinning the best dance music, and maybe a surprise or two! If you can't come early, come late - we'll be there until they kick us out!
