Thanks Christine!

"The best workout spares no effort... the same holds true for Christine!"

"I wasn't sure I could buy a home but I saw Christine's ad and called. We met and before I knew it I was pre-qualified. Just as I found the perfect house I had to leave the country for three weeks. This could have meant disaster, but Christine went the distance and handled everything hassle-free! When I returned, all I had to do was sign the papers and move in."

Join Kristan, Janna and 250 other lesbians for Take to the Floor in 2004: A Lesbian New Year's Eve Party

You go to the same place every New Year's Eve. You know it, we know it.

Just look at all the stuff there is to do. We went to all this work to find out.

Forget about last year—it's over! Study this essential guide, call your peeps, make a new plan. Make several. We'll be watching.

Whether you're a seasoned cha-cha veteran or a virgin to the West Coast swing, dust off your finest dancing footwear for Out Dancing's New Year's Dinner and Dance at Ankeny Street Studios (corner of Southeast Ninth Avenue and Ankeny Street), 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The popular class—which provides monthly dance lessons for queer couples—welcomes the public for a nonalcoholic evening of DJ ballroom dancing, food and mingling with classmates of yore. According to event organizer Daniel Hutchison, "With the response we've gotten so far, it may just turn into a regular annual event!" Get your tix at 503-236-5129 or outdancing@yahoo.com (or, if there are any left, at the door).

Boogie down with Portland Sapphic sisters during Take to the Floor in 2004: A Lesbian New Year's Eve Party 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Shenanigans on Swan Island, 4575 N. Channel Ave. Presented by (and benefiting) the Lesbian Community Project and Portland Lesbian Choir, this arguably most popular dyke NYE spot in the city finds DJ Lauren spinning (in smoke-free air), a no-host bar, a light buffet and a silent auction. Advance tix are $25 from In Other Words, It's My Pleasure or Touchstone Coffee House. Price shoots up to $30 at the door.

What, exactly, is New Year's Drag Racing at Crush, one of Portland's coolest neighborhood spots? Woody Clarke, proprietor: "Four lucky contestants will race to
