"...people in America are just seen as a homogenous bunch of rabid, nationalist bullies and that's such a sad thing because I think if we are going to fight to reclaim democracy that fight has to begin [in the U.S.]. And all of us have to acknowledge that it is the people of America who have access to the imperial palace. There are two ways that Empire spreads its tentacles, one is with the cruise missile and the daisy cutter and so on, and the other is with the IMF checkbook."

—Arundhati Roy, interviewed by Amy Goodman, Democracy Now, May 31, 2003
