Kirk Snyder, author of The Lavender Road to Success, will be speaking at PSU's Queer Career Conference.

PSU CONVENES QUEER CAREER CONFERENCE

Portland State University will play host to the city's first-ever Queer Career Conference on April 19 in Room 327 of Smith Memorial Center, 1825 S.W. Broadway. This is a free conference for PSU and community college students and alumni.

The event will feature national speaker Kirk Snyder, author of The Lavender Road to Success (Ten Speed Press). His book has been hailed by critics and readers alike as the definitive career book for the sexual minorities community. As the foremost authority on the subject of queer career success, Snyder's groundbreaking research at University of Southern California has focused national attention on the tremendous value and strength of the sexual minorities community in the world of work.

Also speaking will be ubiquitous queer City Commissioner Sam Adams, Basic Rights Oregon executive director Roey Thorpe, Just Out publisher Marty Davis, Nike executive Jackie Thomas and Portland General Electric executive Brian Craig. The featured panels will include "It's a Queer Life: Finding Work Serving the Queer Community," "Queer Career Basics: Résumés and Job Search Strategies," "Networking and Mentoring: Growing Yourself and Your Career," "Transitioning and Work: Transgender Job Search and Employment Issues." The day will round out with a workshop by Act for Action: Theater for All.

The event is sponsored in part by the PSU Diversity Action Council, the Student Activities and Leadership Programs Speaker's Board and the Division of Student Affairs.

GUERRILLA GIRLS ON TOUR IN PORTLAND

Portland Community College Sylvania Women's Resource Center will play host to Guerrilla Girls on Tour, an internationally acclaimed anonymous theater collective, April 19.

Guerrilla Girls on Tour will bring to the campus a focus on the disenfranchisement experienced by women and artists of color. They will

The Guerrilla Girls on Tour are sure to challenge feminists of all stripes with their new production about the history of women in world theater.

THE ADVANTAGES OF BEING A WOMAN ARTIST:

- Working without the pressure of success.
- Not having to be in shows with men.
- Having an escape from the art world in your 4 free-lance jobs.
- Knowing your career might pick up after you're eighty.
- Being reassured that whatever kind of art you make it will be labeled feminine.
- Not being stuck in a tenured teaching position.
- Seeing your ideas live on in the work of others.
- Having the opportunity to choose between career and motherhood.
- Not having to choke on those big cigars or paint in Italian suits.
- Having more time to work when your mate dumps you for someone younger.
- Being included in revised versions of art history.
- Not having to undergo the embarrassment of being called a genius.
- Getting your picture in the art magazines wearing a gorilla suit.

activists and their accomplishments. The performance will end with a lively discussion with the audience on the current cultural trends for women and artists of color. The cross-cultural, multidisciplinary event will serve to educate the community about the current state of sexism and at the same time prove that feminists can, in fact, be funny.

perform Feminists Are Funny, a 70-minute energetic romp through their herstory; an up-to-date account of their latest actions in politics, the performing arts and the media; a sneak peak at scenes from the brand new Guerrilla Girls on Tour Show, a history of women in world theater; and the history of some of the funniest female

Guerrilla Girls on Tour is an activist theater collective founded in 2001 by Lorraine Hansberry, Aphra Behn and Hallie Flanagan, former members of the Guerrilla Girls. Guerrilla Girls on Tour is now a separate organization focused
