EMPLOYMENT

United Way

The United Way of the Columbia-Willamette has an opening for the professional position of Vision Council Manager in the Community Impact/Relations Division.

This position will work with volunteers, agency/community representatives, division staff and other United Way staff to provide professional staff support to the Community Impact Area Vision Council while helping shape and coordinate United Way's overall direction and strategy.

Requirements for this position include:

Two or more years of direct program development, planning, and policy making experience in the assigned community impact area.

Experience with assessing programs, working with and facilitating volunteer based decision making and consensus building, and a background in contract development, management, monitoring, and evaluation.

Must have knowledge and understanding of outcomes measurement, indicators and data collection methods, and the ability to identify funding and other support resources for the assigned community impact area.

Excellent oral and written communication skills, an ability to manage multiple projects, and a capacity to work as part of a staff team are also essential.

Experience and understanding with community trends and needs as well as an understanding of program delivery and strategy of community wellness and self sufficiency programming.

For additional position information, please refer to the United Way website, www.unitedway-pdx.org
