'Tis the season to be active

The Rose City Softball Association season kicked off April 17. Games begin between 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sundays at Gordon Faber Recreational Complex, 4450 N.W. 229th Ave. in Hillsboro.

Mark your calendar for the Cascade Cup on July 2 and 3. The 29th Gay Softball World Series, which was held in Portland three years ago, is being hosted by San Diego this summer. Starting Aug. 14, the weeklong tournament will crown the champions in seven divisions of softball that make up the North American Gay Amateur Athletic Alliance. For more information visit www.portlandgaysoftball.com.

The Lesbian Community Project will hold the 20th annual Softball Tournament of Choice Aug. 5 to 7 at Prairie Fields, 13599 N.E. Prairie Road in Brush Prairie, Wash. The event features raffle prizes, games, food and camping. Spectators are welcome. For more information visit www.lesbian-communityproject.org.

According to its vision statement, the Portland Shockwave "seeks to maintain...a level of professionalism, integrity, fundamentalism and community spirit unmatched by its predecessors. By representing women and their role in athletics in a positive light and giving back to and entertaining our communities and fans, the Shockwave will live up to its title as Portland's premier women's full-contact football team." They're accepting players all season long. On May 21 the Shockwave will take on Independent Women's Football League national champs the Sacramento Sirens, followed by the Corvallis Pride on May 28. Home games start 7 p.m. at Lincoln High School, 1600 S.W. Salmon St. The cost is $5 for adults and $3 for students. The division championships take place in July, and the Super Bowl will be held Aug. 6. For more information call 503-848-2626 or visit www.portlandshockwave.com.

Portland Team Volleyball is the Rose City's gay volleyball organization. Last October it presented the Fall Ball, a weekend of games and parties sanctioned by the North American Gay Volleyball Association. Competing teams included the cleverly named Portland Spank It, Seattle Free Ballers, Vancouver Beaver Fever and Sacramento We Got Game. For more information e-mail ptvinfo@portlandteamvolleyball.com.

Team Tennis welcomes players of all skill levels from 8 a.m. to noon Sundays at University of Portland. First-timers can compete for free, and it costs just $3 thereafter. For more information call 503-516-8329 or e-mail teamportlandtennis@yahoo.com. In Eugene, the GLBT Tennis
