

Come Together

Founded in January 2001, Shout Out (4:30 p.m. June 19) is a Portland-based nonprofit educational and musical organization dedicated to presenting a message of diversity, teamwork and mutual respect through public performance and community service.

According to its mission statement, the group builds "bridges of understanding between... ethnic, cultural, spiritual, political, economic, age-based, physically challenged, sexual and gender minority groups" and encourages "constructive communication and a celebration of our differences and recognition of our similarities" by presenting "musical, choreographic and artistic productions that reflect these goals in their spirit and content." Shout Out seeks to bring people together to
