PRIDE: A DEEPER LOVE

Being vilified for having to make necessary changes = disheartening.
Having to allow protestors into "your" event to protest "you" = unfortunate.
Watching it all unfold and people enjoying themselves = priceless!

On behalf of Pride Northwest, Inc. I would like to say thank you, thank you, thank you to all of the volunteers who assisted in assuring the weekend was enjoyable for all who participated, as well as the sponsors who provided us with resources, so Pride could take place. Thank you to the vendors who gave us reason to shop and all who came out this past weekend to celebrate Pride 05! The weather held and gave us sunshine to party in. The performers gave us a reason to wiggle.

On Sunday evening, as our small board helped with the break down tasks, we all agreed it was worth it. Through the struggle that was this past planning year, it was still worth it. For everyone who took the time to give us feedback and those who have pledged their support and involvement during the next year, thank you. We look forward to working with you to improve upon the coming years celebration. To all those who opposed the changes; I welcome you to get involved. Don't just lend us ideas; lend us a hand to incorporate them. Let's do it together. It's our Pride...let's own it.

A very special thank you to the rest of the board for all their hard work this year; Nicole Browning, Vickie Britton, Patrick Olson, Stef-Anie Wells and our hardworking staffer, Ady Oren. Together guys, we pulled off the seemingly impossible. To my daughter Jamie, your assistance and support are immeasurable.

Pride Northwest, Inc. is currently recruiting new board members! Board applications are due July 15, 2005. Applications may be downloaded from: <http://www.pridenw.org/docs/Boardapp0405.pdf>. Please fax your completed application to: 503-296-5595.

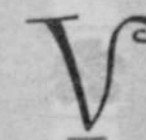

Mark your calendars for July 13, 2005, 6:30p.m. Pride Northwest Inc. will hold a community forum at Portland State University. We are looking forward to gathering your ideas and feedback. We hope to see many of you there as we begin planning for Pride 06!
