Executive Director, Cascade AIDS Project
$90,000 to $105,000

Founded in 1983 Cascade AIDS Project (CAP) in Portland Oregon, one of the leading AIDS service organizations in the US, with an annual budget of $4.5 million, seeks a visionary and strategic leader with a passion for working on HIV/AIDS issues. The Executive Director provides leadership that ensures implementation of the Board-approved strategic plan, and the development of an organizational structure that achieves stated goals. CAP is looking for a skilled administrator and manager who will motivate and inspire CAP Board, Staff and Stakeholders. As the public face of the organization, the successful candidate will be a highly competent communicator, able to speak to a diversity of stakeholders who may manifest conflicting goals. The CAP Executive Director, as a model of integrity for CAP staff and supporters, will enthusiastically lead the organization in continued growth and improved service delivery.

A Masters degree in a relevant field is preferred; at a minimum a Bachelors degree is required. The position requires at least five years of direct management experience, preferably in a nonprofit organization at the Executive level. Must demonstrate a proven track record as a successful fundraiser. Must demonstrate a proven track record of being able to form and maintain effective working relationships. Closing date is October 7, 2005. For a complete job description go to www.cascadeaids.org. Send resume and cover letter to: ED Search Committee, Cascade AIDS Project 620 SW. 5th Avenue Suite 300 Portland, OR 97204 or to jschwarzenberger@cascadeaids.org (9/2)
