

Q Center presents

What's your story?

What's her story?

What's his story?

What's our story?

Community Voices: Making History

A storytelling event for the GLBTQ community

Tuesday December 6

6-8:30pm

Urban Grind
Coffeehouse
2214 NE Oregon

- Panel featuring history-making Portlanders, including the legendary Darcelle and Roxy and community members of all ages, sharing their stories

- Photos and documents from the Gay & Lesbian Archives of the Pacific Northwest

- Share your story with video storytelling on hand

COMMUNITY VOICES: MAKING HISTORY is the second in a series of three activities hosted by Portland's new LGBTQ community center, Q Center. Each event has a specific theme with the goal to engage the community in fun activities while inviting additional input on permanent Q Center programming.

Q Center? We're working to increase the visibility of and foster connection within Portland's LGBTQ community by building public awareness and support and celebrating queer diversity through art, culture and programming.

For more info, or to volunteer, contact us: info@pdxQcenter.org

we're showing up everywhere.

