Madonna Confessions On A Dance Floor

A stunning blend of musical styles with one foot in early disco and the other pointed toward the future. Confessions On A Dance Floor "is all about having a good time straight through and non-stop," says the Material Mom, who co-wrote and co-produced every track.

Rent Original Motion Picture Soundtrack

Based on Puccini's classic opera, La Boheme, Jonathan Larson's revolutionary rock opera tells the story of a group of bohemians struggling for success and acceptance while enduring the obstacles of poverty, illness and the AIDS epidemic in New York's gritty East Village. Now the powerful musical marks its 10th year on stage by coming to the screen, accompanied by RENT The Motion Picture Soundtrack.

Dead Can Dance Memento (Very Best of)

Fusing atmospheric, ambient pop, spiritual undertones, and alt-electronica with world beats and European folk — both contemporary and centuries old — their string of album masterpieces kicked off in 1984 with a self-titled debut.

Their cult following thrives, and Rhino's new compilation coincides with the band's reunion, their first together in many years.
