Queer Tunes Go Mainstream

Sony Music Label Group U.S. and Logo founder Matt Farber's Wilderness Media & Entertainment announced a merger Jan. 10 to create Music with a Twist, the first major music label dedicated to identifying, developing, commercializing and exploiting gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender artists. The company will collaborate with Sony's U.S. labels, including Columbia Records Group, Epic Records, Sony Nashville and Sony Urban Music.

The Twist roster will feature queer artists who have mass appeal and hit potential across all musical genres. Also planned for the Twist imprint is a series of branded compilations geared toward the queer audience as well as music fans everywhere. These compilations will feature hit songs by established artists that have been embraced by sexual minority audiences as well as tracks from emerging gay artists. The first of these compilations will be released in June during National Gay Pride Month. As part of its focus on identifying and developing new artists, Twist is in the process of assembling a nationwide network of talent scouts to bring gay talent with a local buzz or a gay fan base to its attention.

Underground Ventilation

The Portland Mercury's Hey Homo blog is attracting witty banter with topics ranging from Barbie's satirical gender-bending activism to rages about political moves to lamentation about the final performance for local drag king troupe DK PDX.

Dedicated Mercury readers shouldn't much mind the wanton approaches to spelling and grammar and unsubstantiated statements of fact they've come to rely on. jo

The Alternative Is Out

The Addams family within the rainbow family now has its own publication, with the maiden publication of Dreck, a "mega-zine" aiming to combine The Portland Mercury's irreverence and Just Out's queer bent.
