STAFF PICK Untitled
Ann Mallory Hubbard

Six months ago, I hiked at Arches National Park in Utah on my way to Portland from St. Louis. This photo reminds me of the vibrant red rocks I saw there. At that time, the future was filled with uncertainty, as Portland was completely unknown to me. The photo's unique perspective helps others see what I experienced.

I chose this photo because it instantly made me smile. It required no thought, no pondering, no interpretation. This photo evoked an immediate response to the joyful merriment and mirth that comes from being a pet owner and being one with the pack. We are all equal in the eyes of dog.
