From the talented Mexican filmmaker Julián Hernández (A Thousand Clouds of Peace) comes one of the most sensuous gay films we've seen this year. It's the story two gorgeous young students madly in love with each other until another man comes between them. While we think this is an amazing treat, we're going to warn you that it's a serious art film; the story is told with little dialogue and lots of lovemaking. The actors' lips must have been chapped after a day on this set.

Legendary dyke comedienne Kate Clinton offers her riotous viewpoint on feminism, lesbianism and life in this one-woman, stand-up performance from the "Lily Tomlin Jane Wagner Performing Arts Center." Clinton takes on the burning issues of the day - politics, marriage, sex and pop culture.
