Be the First to Hear Who's Performing at TBA Fest

Support the edgy work of the Portland Institute for Contemporary Art with a wild gathering of underground glances, glimpses, gazing, gawking, flirting, flitting, hooting, hollering, risking and rocking!

Tada Underground, PICA's annual gala fund-raiser to benefit artistic programming, will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. April 21 at 509 S.W. Taylor St.

The evening will include a performance from queer neo-folkie Holcombe Waller, master of ceremonies Andrew Dickson, a special choral presentation, other interruptions and surprises, the return of the Wall of Wine and an incredible dinner prepared by the wizards of Simpatia Catering.

Best of all, Tada boasts the official announcement of the 2007 Time-Based Art Festival lineup of artists, along with an auction of unique TBA experiences. Now in its fifth year, the contemporary art festival features regional, national and international artists presenting theater, dance, music, film and visual exhibition and installation. With 10 days of performances from Sept. 6 to 16 and monthlong exhibitions on display through October, the festival will be presented under bridges, over rivers and throughout the city.

Tada tickets are $150 from 503-242-1419, ext. 221, or www.pica.org.
