

Guide to Pride

"Confessions of a Diva," an intimate evening with La'Wanda Jackson, also known as Wendal Jackson, will take place 10 and 11:15 p.m. June 15 at Living Room Theaters, 341 S.W. 10th Ave. Jackson has been featured on The Ricki Lake Show and The Maury Povich Show and in the film Miss Congeniality 2: Armed & Fabulous. Tickets are $20 at the door or $15 in advance from Embers, 110 N.W. Broadway; Odessa's Café, 3445 N.E. Broadway; or Brother to Brother, 503-417-7991.

Answer the call to march with Brother to Brother in the Pride Parade with an energy breakfast at 10 a.m. in the North Park Blocks, or meet the group at the festival for music, games, coupons for free HIV testing and other information.

Cooking with Pride

Happy Ours Productions, a group celebrating the visibility of lesbians of color, takes pride with a "Taste the Rainbow Happy Ours Cookout" featuring food, a raffle, basketball, volleyball and dominos from 4 to 9 p.m. June 17 in Overlook Park at North Fremont Street and Interstate Avenue.

For more information visit www.happyooursproductions.com.

Chorus Makes Peace

The Portland Gay Men's Chorus will perform The Peacemakers, the final concert of its 27th season hosted by former Oregon Gov. Barbara Roberts, 7:30 p.m. June 16 at Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall, 1037 S.W. Broadway. Tickets are $20-$30 from 503-226-2588 or www.pdxgmc.org. Turn to Page 64 for the full article.

Dykes March. Shirts Optional

The Dyke March continues its tradition at 7 p.m. June 16. The Dyke March is open to all women, biological and otherwise, and no signup is required. Participants will gather at 6 p.m. at Northwest Ninth Avenue and Davis Street with banners and noisemakers. Those with trucks and accessible vehicles are encouraged to show up early and offer transportation. Allies can support the march by watching from the sidelines.

Portland's Dyke March has no corporate sponsors. All money for permits and insurance have been donated by private citizens. For more information visit www.dykemarchportland.com.

Warm up for the march when Dykes on Bikes and their friends take a leisurely bicycle ride from 6 to 8 p.m. June 11. Meet at Zaytoon, 2236 N.E. Alberta St.

Teddy Meet

The Oregon Bears will have a booth at Pride and a contingent in the parade, but if you really want to meet the bears in their natural habitat, head to the BearBust from 9 to midnight June 16 at Gail's Dirty Duck, 439 N.W. Third Ave. For more information visit www.oregonbears.org.

Elders on Film

The Elder Resource Alliance presents a Pride week screening of The Man You Had in Mind, a documentary about five same-sex couples living in Portland and Vancouver, Wash.

Falling in love is a universal human experience, regardless of one's sexual orientation. Gays form stable relationships for the same reasons that heterosexual couples do, but the ties that bind these couples are different in some ways. The documentary addresses what forces bring them together, the journeys they face and the political atmosphere in which they survive. The film features the music of popular gay singer/songwriter Eric Himan.

Director James Tuschmidt and Elder Resource Alliance members Eric Marcoux and Eugene Woodworth, who are in the film, will be in attendance. Gourmet desserts and sparkling beverages will be served to celebrate the couple's 54th anniversary.

The reception begins 6 p.m. June 13 at Hollywood Theatre, 4122 N.E. Sandy Blvd. Tickets are $10 for general admission or $7 for seniors and children from 800-494-8497 or BoxOfficeTickets.com.
