Historic Inn Reopens in the Gorge

The View Point Inn and Restaurant, at Crown Point reopened on Memorial Day 2007. Just 25 minutes from Portland, it was built in 1924 as a destination spot for tourism along the Historic Columbia River Highway. The Inn hosted such guests as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Charlie Chaplin, European Royalty, and tourists from all over the world. The Inn sits on a one acre bluff overlooking the Columbia River Gorge, the city lights of Portland and Vancouver. The View Point Inn is on the National Register of Historic Places. The Inn features Arts & Crafts style architecture and is the only remaining example of early automobile lodging left in the Gorge.

The sunsets are breathtaking at this fine dining establishment with world class chefs and service. Private dining is available in the Roosevelt Suite.

The View Point Inn is quite possibly the most romantic, charming and elegant place on earth.

The Inn is perfect for weddings, banquets, corporate and special events. Regular hours are: Lunch Wednesday – Saturday 11-2 p.m.; Dinner Wednesday – Sunday 5-10 p.m. and Sunday brunch 9-2 p.m. The Inn is the quintessential European get away with five overnight lodging rooms overlooking the Columbia River Gorge.

Life partners Geoff Thompson and Angelo Simione own The View Point Inn and extend a gracious welcome to the LGBT Community.

Thanks Christine!

"After talking with other lenders, we were very frustrated with the reception we received on our bankruptcy. We'd met Christine at the Pride Festival and decided to give her a call. Unlike the others, she worked with us to improve our credit file and then came through with financing where others told us it couldn't be done. Today we live in a 1246 sq. ft. ranch with a huge back yard and 3 corgis. We're very thankful to Christine and know that she is our lender for life."
