Coast with the Most

Northern Oregon's coastal cities come out for Valentine's Day

By Jedidiah Chavez

Around February, tension seems to build in Oregonians. We dream of tropical vacations filled with sunlight, hard bodies and golden tans. When the winter gloom and doom becomes overpowering, a trip to the Oregon coast is in order. Granted, you will probably still be surrounded by pasty faces and a gray sky, but the crashing waves and ocean air will revive even the weariest of Portlanders afflicted with light deprivation and seasonal depression. Think of the Oregon coast as our version of Ibiza with less G-string and more flannel.
