

"You begin to understand that suffering is grace.... Suffering stinks, and then it becomes grace.... You work with it and experience what it's showing you."

—Ram Dass
author, speaker, spiritual activist

"Any time you can laugh about something, it shatters it. Then it doesn't have any power over you."

—Clyde Hall
Native American of Shoshone-Metis descent

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THE GAY LIBERATION PIONEERS PHOTOGRAPHED BY MARK THOMPSON

"Things are always seen as comparative in a worldview whose standard is total conformity. [Gay men] hate competition. We rebel against conformity. We don't honor the leadership role. We prefer to function by consensus. And we've obviously been that way certainly since the time of little Faerie-brother Jesus."

—Harry Hay
activist and founder of the Mattachine Society and the Radical Faeries
