It was 1978 when Reverend Ken Storer founded the Metropolitan Community Church in Boise, Idaho. His journey with the gay community had been interesting so far but it was about to get a lot more challenging for the next ten years. His commitment to his faith and the GLBT community soon took him to Portland and then on to Tacoma where he continued to serve with the MCC church.

Jamshed

Breitenbush Hot Springs healed his heart and he found a new path there as a spiritual guide and teacher. We now know him as Jamshed and for over 20 years he has extended gracious hospitality for many groups and individuals including Women in the Woods and the Radical Faeries.

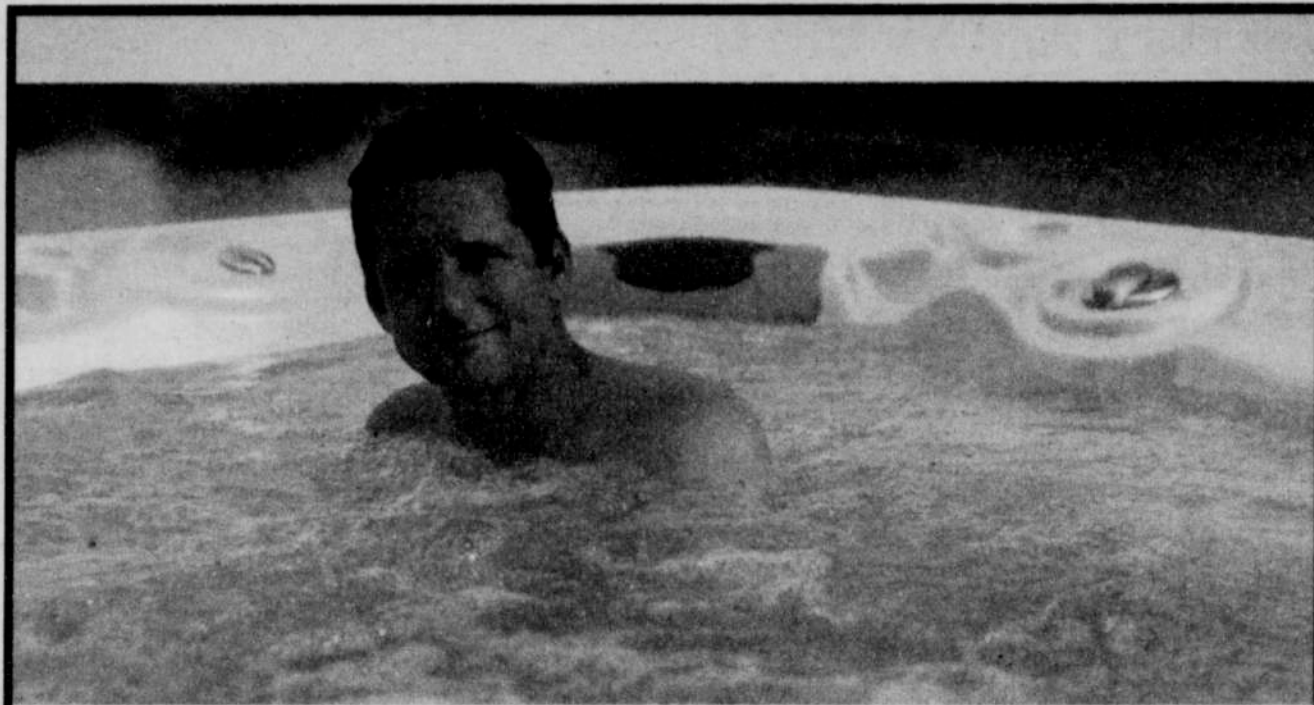

Jamshed has given to our Pacific Northwest Community for over thirty years. We at SHARE would be honored to be of service to him. Jamshed Storer has been instrumental in laying the foundation for our community today. Now it is our responsibility as a community to build upon that foundation.

In the 1980's, after relocating to Eugene, Reverend Ken found himself in the midst of the AIDs epidemic. Ken was called to a new ministry. He helped found "Shanti in Oregon", a ministry/service organization designed to offer services to rural gay men suffering from AIDs. In 1988, after burying close to 100 men, Ken found himself at a Radical Faerie Gathering at Breitenbush Hot Springs, broken and exhausted.
