Prepare to be inspired

Diversity Summit 2011 is the premier training opportunity for managers, human resource professionals, diversity specialists and employees interested in learning more about diversity programs and initiatives in the workplace. With 14 different workshops to choose from, learn how to build a stronger, more competitive organization that reflects the diversity of your customer base.

Keynote speakers:

Robert F. Kennedy Jr. talks about economic and environmental justice and his family's legacy of championing civil rights.

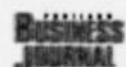

Marlee Matlin, Academy Award®-winning actress, activist and emissary for the deaf community, shares her struggles and triumphs.

Keynote presenters provided by The Fischer Ross Group, Inc.
