Berlin Reed, The Ethical Butcher, in a home demonstration

Pigging Out

Summer Beats & Bacon sizzles with meaty goodness

It's the Monday after Pride. You've marched, danced and otherwise exercised your way across town, from celebration to celebration, party to party, burning calorie after calorie. What to do?

Get yourself some eats, that's what, some meaty eats.

For the second annual Summer Beats & Bacon, a three-city tour of multisensory flavor, Berlin Reed—aka The Ethical Butcher—and colleagues will entertain both your pie- and ear-holes. The latest round introduces four new flavors of pig profundity, bursting with seasonal fruits and berries, floral blooms, summery heat and more. From bacon-candied popcorn to bacon-wrapped herb bundles to a twist on the classic BLT, nosherers should save their appetites for a promised 12-15 pork creations.

To sweeten the most savory evening—held in Portland at Saraveza—DJ Beyonda (of MRS., I've Got a Hole in My Soul and Buck 'n Bounce fame) will delight your aural palate with the best cuts of music. The tasting will be followed by door prizes, raffles, "bacon-themed" games and, for attendees in one lucky city (others include Seattle and the already sold-out San Francisco), a bacon crème brûlée station.

Here's hoping it's us. Flambé, to stay!

Mon., June 20, 8 p.m. (7:30 doors); Saraveza (backspace), 5433 N. Michigan Ave.; $25/person or 2/$40 presale, $30 each at door, pending availability; ethicalbutcher.blogspot.com or theethicalbutcher@gmail.com.
