training," explains Samuel Thomas, a Q Patrol co-founder. "Just one Friday or Saturday night a month is all we ask for."

A great time to find out more about how you can help Q Patrol is coming up Monday, July 18 during a social event at Red Cap Garage (1035 SW Stark St.) from 7 to 10 p.m. Thomas mans the bar while you meet Q Patrol volunteers to find out more information about how to get involved to make our community safer.

The event is 21 and over, with no cover, and includes drink specials. For more information about Q Patrol, search "QPatrol Portland" on Facebook.

• Thinking of captaining an AIDS Walk Portland 2011 team this year, but need some help? Look no further than the Team Captain Kick-Off Party Thursday, July 21 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Lan Su Chinese Garden (239 NW Everett St.).

With AIDS Walk Portland just around the corner on October 2, this is your chance to meet potential teammates to walk and raise money for the continued support of Cascade AIDS Project's role in raising awareness for, educating about and erasing the stigma of HIV/AIDS in the Portland metro area.

The party is limited to the first 250 people who RSVP. If you've got your team figured out already, join the 10,000 others by registering now at aidswalkportland.org. For RSVP information for the Team Captain Kick-Off Party, visit cascadeaids.org.

• Q Center (4115 N. Mississippi Ave.) hosts and is beneficiary of Qfest 2011, held Thursday, July 21 from 5 to 9 p.m. Presented by the Pride Professional Alliance, this benefit barbecue includes free food, drinks, live music and a bounce house for kids. There's a suggested donation of $10.

The Pride Professional Alliance (PPA) promotes and encourages professional enterprises and development within the community that actively support individual success, diverse families and community involvement through partnerships and educational programs. For more information about PPA, visit prideprofessionalalliance.com.

• On Saturday, July 23, the next in a series of bully prevention and self-defense trainings is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. for children ages 7-10 years old at the One with Heart Tulen Center (4231 SE Hawthorne Blvd.).

These free trainings are designed to raise awareness about bullying and offer practical skills for responding to bullying behavior.

Pre-registration is required; call 503-231-1999. For more information about One with Heart Tulen Center, visit onewithheart.com.

• Positive Force NW gears up for its Second Annual Positive Picnic at Peninsula Park (corner of N. Albina Ave. and N. Rosa Parks Way, picnic site B) Sunday, July 31 from noon to 3:30 p.m.

The Positive Picnic is a great opportunity for people living with HIV and their families to meet and network with other individuals living with HIV. This alcohol-free event includes a barbecue with grilled burgers, hot dogs, vegetarian food and more, all compliments of Positive Force NW. Enjoy a game of kickball or other park activities.

Those interested in attending should RSVP no later than Tuesday, July 26 to David Duncan at dduncan@cascadeaids.org, or call 503-278-3848.
