Soup's On

And then some for Our House's latest Dinner Series lineup

Dinner parties can be among the most special of experiences, and the most enriching—in more ways than one. For its 19th Annual Dinner at My House series, Our House presents a smorgasbord of themed evenings, hosted at everything from private homes to on a double-decker bus, and by a who's who of community figures.

The schedule kicks into high gear July 23 with a "Feasting on Fiction" affair featuring author Chuck Palahniuk (Fight Club, Haunted) and a menu from Vibrant Table Catering. The following night is a classic page-turner, with "Old School Charmers" and Starky's owners Greg Simshaw and Joe Waldruff opening up the queer hub with traditional southern comfort grub.

And for a truly magical time, the next week's "Bali at Tabor Falls" finds Gary Nelson and dancer Minh Tran

(who will also perform) transforming their home into a temple ground complete with waterfalls and gardens, fire pit and a pan-Asian dinner courtesy of Marvelous Meals Extraordinary Catering Service. The Dinner series continues throughout the winter with cuisine for every palate and price point, all proceeds going directly to Our House to support individuals in the community living with HIV/AIDS.

We've no reservations about this one at all—but, you know, reserve now.
