We'Moon Seeks 'Weavers' to Select Submissions for Annual Datebook

We'Moon: Gaia Rhythms for Women is inviting women to attend "Weaving Circles" to help comb through art and writing submissions for the annual woman-centric datebook.

Per publishers, "[It is] an empowering datebook and multicultural earth calendar … an exploration of women's experiences and perspectives, a goddess-inspired creation from the growing edge of women's culture."

The We'Moon datebook includes a daily full lunar calendar and weekly astrological data as well as a monthly at-a-glance lunar section and guides to the sun/moon/earth cycles and seasonal holy days. The theme for 2013 is "The Other Side."

Upcoming Weaving Circles – Portland: Sept. 6, 8 p.m., 503-729-5938; Nehalem: Sept. 17, 6 p.m., 503-368-6389; Corvallis: Sept. 17, noon, 541-752-5938; Eugene: Sept. 18, 1 p.m., 541-607-5551; Roseburg: Sept. 21, 6:30 p.m., 541-672-4590; Gypsy Café at Wolf Creek: Sept. 24, 6 p.m., 541-479-4056; Ashland: Sept. 24, 11 a.m. and Sept. 25, 10 a.m., 541-482-8846, includes potluck meals and option to stay overnight; wemoon.ws.

RCSA Portland Cup Tournament Results, Fall Ball Starts Soon

The dust has settled on the fields of the Delta Park Sports Complex following this year's Portland Cup tournament, and the final standings are in.

Even with a home-field advantage-in the B division, the Portland Assault could only muster a third-place finish to champions the Chicago Spin, and second-place finishers the Seattle Battalion. In the C division, the Portland Grizzlies impressed with a first-place showing, followed by the Seattle Score, the Seattle Honeybadgers and the Portland Redwings.

In D division action, Seattle took the coveted top four spots with the Seattle Monsters coasting to the championship, followed by the Fat Cats, Empire and Buzz.

With the Portland Cup champions basking in the glow of victory, regional softball aficionados can set their sights on Rose City Softball Association's Fall Ball September 11 through October 2. This LGBTQ-inclusive fall schedule is for both men and women, spread across four to six teams. The smaller pool of players provides a singular social mix, with four doubleheaders making up the eight total games on the schedule.

All games are held Sundays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Farragut Park Softball Field (N. Kerby and N. Farragut). The cost to register is $25 per person, and includes a T-shirt. Registered players do not meet their team until the first day of games.

For photos of Portland Cup action, turn to pp. 42-43. More information about RCSA's Fall Ball schedule can be found by visiting rcsaopen.org.

Deadline for Rose City Open XXI Registration Nears

Team Portland Tennis is preparing to host its 21st annual Rose City Open tournament Labor Day weekend, September 3-5, at the Portland Tennis Center (324 NE 12th Ave.). Funds raised from the event will benefit Q Center, Cascade AIDS Project and Portland After-School Tennis and Education.

TPT expects about 125 Gay and Lesbian Tennis Association (GLTA) participants to descend onto Portland for the three-day tourney from as far away as Texas and the East Coast, including players from all over the Pacific Northwest. But if you want to play, you'll have to hurry—registration to enter the tournament in a variety of divisions closes Sunday, August 21.

TPT is also holding a fundraiser August 29-30 at Pastini Pastaria (1506 NW 23rd Ave. only), where 50 percent of the restaurant's net proceeds go to the Rose City Open beneficiaries. Just mention "Team Portland Tennis" to ensure your money goes toward the cause. Take-out meals will be included.

To register, and to learn more about the 21st Annual Rose City Open, visit teamportlandtennis.org.

CAP Gears Up for AIDS Walk Portland 2011

Things are heating up in anticipation of AIDS Walk Portland 2011. The annual fundraiser, scheduled for Sunday, October 2, gets another boost Sunday, August 28 when the Red Party invades Departure (525 SW Morrison St.).

Summer swimwear and sun hats are encouraged for this festive fiesta, located on the top floor of the Nines hotel. From 3 to 7 p.m., enjoy tasty libations and Departure's delectable happy hour menu while mingling with AIDS Walk organizers and CAP staff. Prizes will be awarded to those with the best swimwear, best sun hat, and best summer resort wear.

Registering for AIDS Walk Portland is highly suggested, and RSVPs for the party are encouraged by visiting aidswalkportland.
