IT SUPPORT ANALYST.III (R11-242)

Portland General Electric values the energy of teamwork, diversity, and innovation to provide our customers with safe and reliable power. As Oregon's largest provider of electric service, PGE is helping shape Oregon's energy future. Among the millions of ordinary jobs in the world are a few special places — the team-driven environments with the resources and support you need to succeed. That's PGE — the unique combination of a friendly and supportive atmosphere with a progressive vision for business success. It's fun. It's challenging. It's enriching. And it's a big reason why the average PGE employee has spent almost 14 years with us. If you're looking for a new opportunity in an essential, dynamic industry, consider becoming a part of our PGE team.

The IT Support Analyst performs at a full professional level within a team of IT professionals in IT Application Shared Services. The Support Analyst possesses a specialized knowledge in two or more areas of PGE's technology and application environment. This support position is responsible for administration and some development on all aspects of the IT Application Shared Services SharePoint, TeamSite / OpenDeploy environments, including design, development, scripting development, architecture, availability, reliability, performance, monitoring and security.

This is the primary Web Collaboration and Content Management support resource, and we are looking for someone who wants to take ownership in a highly visible role.

Typical Qualifications: 5+ years with bachelor's degree in related area with the operation and development experience in collaboration and content management solutions including Sharepoint and TeamSite; Development in .Net, SharePoint, TeamSite and development of Perl scripting in TeamSite is required; WebSphere Portlet Factory and WebSphere Content Manager (WCM) experience a plus; Valid driver's license is required.
