SUPPORT PLANNED PARENTHOOD: PINK CARPET PROJECT

Seattle's Pink Carpet Project was first; a response to the news that Susan G. Komen was going to cut funding to Planned Parenthood's preventative clinical breast exams to uninsured women. Despite the decision quickly being reversed, the Seattle fashion community was inspired to come together to show support to Planned Parenthood of the Great Northwest. Four weeks later with 14 designers, 60 models, 30 hairstylists & makeup artists, 40 volunteers, 10 performers, 45 sponsors and 200 attendees, Seattle came together to stand with Planned Parenthood. Now, the Pink Carpet Project comes to Portland. The show will present collections by both Seattle and Portland's top designers. Event proceeds will go to benefit Planned Parenthood Columbia Willamette.

$20 standing/$75 VIP (Includes front row seating, swag bag, and drink ticket): 8 p.m. (1241 NW Johnson Street)

CHUNKYDUNKS: A QUEER AND SIZE POSITIVE POOL PARTY

ChunkyDunks is an annual summer series of body-positive group swims.

Organizers rent public pools and offer up a focused and intentional space where the natural diversity of human bodies is respected. It can be daunting to put on a suit and swim in public. But the ChunkyDunks aren't going to let anything stop them, or you, from enjoying a refreshing summer cool-down!

Chunky Dunks offer a safe and fun environment to test the waters of your own empowerment and to swim, lounge, splash! Their motto: Hot Sun. Cool water. No shame.

$5 5 p.m. Peninsula Pool (700 N Rosa Parks Way)
