

have, so I don't think there's a picture. I'm open to that, though. I got pretty close in the Pride parade a couple of times.

JO: Why should Portland's LGBT community vote for Charlie Hales?

CH: Not just because I've been there and proven, as Gail [Shibley] said, that I was there before being pro-gay was being cool, and took flack for doing things like opposing Measure 9. Not just because I've helped fight the good fights. But, as a straight male in a city that I love, I think people from the LGBT community that know me say, by the look in my eye, and the kind of hug that we exchange, that this guy really cares. He really cares about our community. He not only gets it. He's not only on the right side of the policy issues, but he cares about us as people.

JO: Anything else you want to say to our community?

CH: Portland is the best place for everybody, and I'm going to work really hard to keep it that way. ■
