LOCAL LOUNGE
3536 NE MLK Jr. Blvd
local-lounge.com

"We are looking to meet the white collared and the blue collared, the starving artist and the hopeful musicians, the young and the old, the liberal and the liberal, the Blazer fan and the Laker hater, men and women, gay or straight," their website says.

NORTH

THE EAGLE PORTLAND
835 N Lombard St
eagleportland.com
"The Eagle is the kind of men's bar that fits like your favorite pair of jeans. It's a relaxed hang-out for the men of North Portland," their website says.

FLORIDA ROOM
435 N Killingsworth St
"It's got everything the pro and amateur barfly can appreciate and then some." PortlandBarFly.com says. Queers go here.

FOGGY NOTION
3416 N Lombard St
facebook.com/thefoggynotation
Live rockshows. Queer events, too.

VANCOUVER

According to the Columbian, the Advocate ranked Vancouver as the country's No. 6 "gayest city" in 2011. That's right! The Vancouver with the WA after it. That was three spots above Seattle; five ahead of San Francisco. And way above Portland. We know! But congratulations to our brothers and sisters across the river. We truly are happy for you. "One gets the sense that a lot of those groovy gay and lesbian Portlanders are mellowing out and coming here to settle down." Advocate reporter Mike Albo wrote.
