Café Christmas

This play takes place in a mid-west cafe on Christmas Eve. The Walker Family stops for lunch at the Welcome Home Cafe while on their way to a family Christmas. When a blizzard rolls through town, the family is forced to stay the night at the Cafe. The family's own spiritual belief system is challenged by the Lesbian owners of the Cafe.

10 a.m. Service at MCC Portland (2400 NE Broadway)

19TH

Queer Quistmas

Fannie Mae Darling hosts her 6th annual holiday-themed variety show and benefit, this time with Carla Rossi. This year all proceeds will be going to start the Darling Kimberly Foundation. The goal for the Foundation is to be able to provide money to families affected by the massive costs, job pay loss, and just all around financial stress that comes with having a family member with cancer. There will also be a coat and non-perishable food drive (sponsoring Our House), silent auction, and raffle prizes.

$5 advance, $7 day of show. 8 p.m. doors, 9 p.m.
Mississippi Studios (3939 N Mississippi Ave)
