ROMANCE MEETS FUN

A beautiful Christmas tree farm near Salem owned by Corinna's sister and her husband served as the perfect location for the big day. The couple were wed under a 100-year-old silver oak tree. Julie made her way down the long aisle to her bride via a 4-wheel drive Kubota driven by two nephews. Corinna walked, her mom and dad on each arm. Martinis followed immediately after. A perfect day for a loving couple.

ATTENDANCE: 75 COLORS: Grey, pinks, oranges, and light browns. FLOWERS: Cut right off the bushes on the grounds. Hydrangeas in pewter vases. CAKE: A 3-tiered chocolate, strawberry, and vanilla cake, picked up in Portland by Corinna's parents at 4 a.m. and placed in a handmade wooden box filled with dry ice. What a Dad! MET: At work. Corinna asked Julie, "Where did you come from?"

ENGAGEMENT: The East Coast transplants were on a first trip to the Oregon Coast. Julie asked. Corinna cried and said yes. RING: Julie had Corinna's ring designed by a friend in Chapel Hill, NC after knowing Corinna for 9 months. It took her 3 more months to propose. FAVORITE PART: The anticipation, seeing friends and family in one place, the venue, the tractor ride, the ring bearers, vows, the ruby martinis, the first dance, and the kisses. HONEYMOON: Back to the Oregon Coast and the San Juan Islands. UNIQUE: The farm, Remi the horse, the DJ, friends who flew in from all over North America and Australia. The cocktails. LOVE: "Corinna is a beautiful spirit," Julie says. "A one of a kind. She's honest. And her laugh. You can't mistake it and it's contagious, Julie says. "She's confident as she walks through the world, but can be so soft and vulnerable," says Corinna. "Julie is truly the kindest person that I've ever known. She is extremely thoughtful, loving and cares deeply for people around her."
