Too Much Education?

Countless numbers of people are found cause to regret that they had too little education; no one was ever heard to complain that he had too much. Even though school days be over, education in a larger sense should continue. Thought given now to the more distant future will doubtless influence your decision.

ATHLETICS

Baseball Practice Resumed Again

After a week of bad weather, baseball practices were resumed with very peppy work out. It looked as though the snow was here to stay but the team is going strong again and is fast rounding into shape.

The outfield, consisting of Ben Wick, Reeder, Gosnell, Simpson, Most, Curtis, Riley, Ray Smith, Howell and Squires, are looking good and miff very few flies. Art Most has his first night out not to make a two-bagger, and all the other outfielders also are doing well at the plate. The infield is improving rapidly for an inexperienced bunch of players. Steamy grounders are being smugged with great form while high flies are darkening the skies. Lee Prescott's arm is in fine shape and he has a world of control this year. With Laurence Gill on first, Jack Balding or Darby O'Toole on second, Gus Moore short, and Harry Smith on third the infield should be airtight. John Baldwin and Dick Hitchcock are still trying for catcher, neither seeming to have an edge.

The first game of the season will be with Klamath High school here on April 20. The return game will be played at Klamath on May 4. Other games being scheduled with smaller schools, since Medford, our stiffest opponents, have dropped baseball this spring, according to reports. A. H. S. should have an easy time clinching the championship this year for they have a wonderful team.

Miss Berg: Mr. Helen, what day do you intend to hand in your theme on the Constitution?

Billy: Oh, Fourth of July.

Walter M: "What color are Hoover's socks?"
Virginia R.: "How do I know?"

Walter M.: "Well, I thought you were one of his supporters."

JOKES

Walt: "I'm glad to see your back."
Marie: "Oh! Of course! That's the reason I wore this gown."

Miss Berg: "Have you ever read 'To a Field Mouse?'"
Reeder: "No, how do you get them to listen?"

Mr. Bliss: "I feel tempted to give you a quiz."
Jean Balls: "Yield not to temptation."

Gus: "Can you swim?"
Floy: "Yes, like apoplexy."
Gus: "How's that?"
Floy: "Three strokes and it's all over."

Mother: How much do you spend on luxuries a week.
J. Balding: Oh, mother, that isn't her name.

Aviator: Wants fly?
Thelma Naylor: You betcha.
Aviator: Wait, I'll catch one for you.

Lyla P.: Why did you let him kiss you?
Floy Young: He threatened to scream if I didn't.

Harold A: "After making a careful study in Lab, I have arrived at this conclusion: What a funny bird the Frog are: when he sit he stand almost; when he hop he fly almost; he ain't got no sense, hardly, and he ain't got no tail hardly, either; he sits on what he ain't got, almost."

Floy: "Do you think much of Walt these days?"

Marie: "Every time I yawn."

John Billings: Do you know Bo?
Rosalie Falls: Boo, Whoop?
J. B.: Well don't cry about it.

Dolly T.: My, that popcorn smells good.

Harry S.: That's right; we'll walk a little closer so you can smell it better.
