A. H. S. WINS HONOR AT CORVALLIS

TYING TEAM BRINGS HOME STATE TYPING CONTEST MEDALS

FIVE WIN MEDALS

Shorthand Team Takes Second Place in Contest.

ASHLAND'S team, consisting of Pauline Coon, Grace Coon and Madge Maren; Novice, Clara Atterbury and Eleanor Coon, have brought home to Ashland six medals in both state and district contests.

The state contest was held in Corvallis on Saturday, April 27. The contestants arrived early in the morning, and arrived that evening. The contest began about 9:30 the next morning. The awards were given in the afternoon. Championship high school teams are as follows:

First prize—State cup and banner, Myrtle Point, 67.34.
Second prize—Silver cup and banner, Dallas, 62.31.
Third prize—Silver cup and banner, Ashland, 61.39.
Fourth prize—Honorable mention, Salem, 61.64.

Other individual and team prizes for accuracy and speed were given.

In the county contest Ashland won the first prize cup, which is now a permanent possession. Eleanor Coon and Grace Coon received the individual honors of second prize model pen and a fountain pen for accuracy. Clara Atterbury was honored mention. Medford took the second prize for team championship.

In the county shorthand contest Ashland won individual places. Barbara Edsall, amateur, won second place for speed; in the novice class, Madge Maren won first place.

Contestants Give Account of Trip

The participants in the contest for typists at Oregon State College gave an account of their trip before the assembly Monday, April 19. Clara Atterbury was first and gave a sketch of the trip to Corvallis. There was the usual hand and baton at the beginning of the trip. Grace Coon (Continued on page Four)

Hi-Y Completes Vocational Trip

Visit Colleges and Factories On Way to Portland: Enjoy Trip.

The Ashland Hi-Y club has just completed a very successful educational trip to Portland. Twenty-one members took part and were guests of both O. S. C. and U. C. and of the Y. M. C. A. in Portland and Salem.

The group started at six o'clock Wednesday morning and journeyed as far as Eugene the first day. Here they were entertained at the fraternity house and taken on a tour of the campus.

On Thursday morning they went on to Corvallis where they were guests of the Inter-Trip and fraternity houses. One of the former Ashland graduates took them through the college buildings and then arranged the tour of the swimming tanks.

Friday noon the club arrived in Salem where they went through the History and Paper mill and were given a banquet by the Salem Hi-Y club. Later they went through the State house and met the members and representatives and told how bills were put through the houses. They also entered the supreme court chamber and the fellows in red sweaters. (Continued on page Four)

C. F. Girls Give Mother's Banquet

Saturday, April 27, the Camp Fire Annual Mother-Daughter banquet was given in the Junior High Gym.

The table decorations were carried out in spring colors. Green and yellow streamers, centering the tables, formed the background for bouquets of pansies, jonquils and daffodils. Clever individual programs in green and yellow added color to the tables.

Mrs. E. C. Fosyth was the charming toastmistress of the banquet. During the course of the evening, Bernice McCormack sang a solo, "Mother of Mine," followed by an address of wel-(Continued on page Four)

Seniors Choose Annual Comedy

Gus Moore and Dolly Trask Take Lead in Mrs. Temple's Telegram.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" has been chosen for the senior plays. It is a comedy of three acts. The cast is working hard and conscientiously and according to Miss Dyer, the director, the play promises to be a great success.

The Temple is a young couple who are extremely jealous of her husband but have no cause to be. He is forced to stay up in a terraced wheel all night and when he explains to his wife she will not believe him, so he tells her he stayed at a friend's house and gives her a fictitious address and telegram. Mrs. Temple does not believe him and telegrams to this person. In the meantime, Mr. Temple has one of his friends impersonate this supposed imaginary person, but there turns out to be a real man by that name and address, and he comes in answer to the telegram. A great mix-up occurs and finally the air is cleared and they all live happily ever afterward.

The cast is composed of the following:

Jack Temple—Gus Moore
Mrs. Temple—Dolly Trask
Frank Fuller—Tom Bevick
Mrs. Fuller—Frances Philpott
M. Temple—Sharon Maltmore
Wigston—John Gill
Dorothy—Norma Brower
Mr. Brown—Harry Smith
Mr. Brown—Jean Shearda

Ashland Debate Team Wins From Roseburg 3-0

The Ashland high school team again brought home the bacon to the tune of 3 to 0 in the Roseburg argument.

The team was accompanied by Miss Tomlinson, Wilma Nutter, and the chauffeur, Culver Anderson.

The girls from Ashland took the negative side of the question, Resolved: That a graduated income tax is a desirable feature of a state system of taxation.

Judges for this debate were Professors Blue, Shoemaker and Moore.

The next debate will be with Scappoose for Western Oregon championship.

GRIZZLIES DEFEAT KLAMATH HIGH

ASHLAND NINE WINS BY A NINTH INNING RALLY.

SCORE 15 TO 14

Prescott Outclasses Two Pelican Pitchers

Lee Prescott, playing his first interscholastic game, bested one Klamath pitcher twice and completely outpitched another. The Grizzlies won the game 15-14.

The visitors had one big inning, as well as several little ones in which they pounded five runs across the pan. It looked just too bad for the locals until the fourth inning when Malters, pitcher, walked in the three runs across the plate. Prescott blanked the alkaloids boys in their half of the fifth while the boys came three for four, tying the score at 7-7.

The game wore on until the seventh, which found the score chalked up with twenty-two K. Falls, and seven for Ashland. The Grizzlies, true to the seventh inning jinx, put over four runs but Klamath came back in their half of the eighth and made two.

Whitney was put in Malm's place in the fifth but Whitney was replaced by Malmore in the ninth.

The Grizzlies showed their teeth and brought the stands to their feet by clattering four runs across the plate for the winning of the first game of the season in the sixth inning.

Ashland's murder row consisted of Roderer, Gill, and Riley. Every hit very well in the pinches.

Hitchcock garnered a three-bagger: Riley, Gill, Hitchcock and Simpson each collected a double and Simpson each collected a double.

Ashland Represented By Young and Bateman

For the contemporaneous speaking and interpretative reading contests, Floy Young and Irwanda Bateman went to Corvallis to represent Ashland high school, and Southern Oregon on Friday, April 26.

Both girls were chosen as among the fine in each division.