LETTERS GIVEN OUT

Program Shows Seniors to Have Many Talented Students in ranks

The afternoon of the day that the Seniors leave school is always set aside for them and called "Senior Hick Day." Such an afternoon occurred Friday, May 17, and, although now a thing of history, is still talked and thought of nearly as much as before. It must have been a success!

The Hicks (Seniors) were dressed in all manner of outlandish costumes; everything from old, old ladies and golf-playing Scotch laddies to cow punchers and hawk county sheriffs were represented. The program was held in the gym and the seniors occupied the stage. The first number was several selections by the class "camb" orchestra. It was really very good, only one of the Sophomores doesn't appreciate good music and made the remark that it sounded like a threshing machine out of tune. Then a short play was given. It was a mock wedding with Lee Prescott acting as preacher, Babe Brown as his wife, and Duffy as their baby. Tom Bewick was the wife-to-be and Norma Brower was the future husband. It portrayed actual life. Virginia Rose was the announcer and with her deep bass voice made the room ring.

Officers for Girls League are Elected

The Girls' League had an election and program in the assembly on May 19.

The meeting was called to order by the president and a committee report was given by Louise Hansen, who reported that the girls' room was to be repainted and a new conglom rug was being bought. She urged the girls to take a greater interest in the care of the room.

Jane Atkins played a piano solo and Rose Atkins played several pieces on the Cello accompanied by Jane. Mrs. Gately gave the girls some ideas on leadership.

FAREWELL SENIORS

To the class of 1929 this issue of the Rogue News is dedicated.

Farewell Seniors! Your race is run. From your ranks have come heroes of football, basketball, baseball, typing, shorthand, speaking contests, and debates. You have sent your members to represent A. H. S. in everything she undertook. You have stood by the Alma Mater always.

In years to come may your memories fly back to days at Ashland high, and may your heart beat faster as you think of your old school. May your life here at Ashland high school be an inspiration to go on to bigger and better things.

You have left behind you footprints for others to follow, and may you be proud of the followers.

Again we say farewell Seniors as you have said farewell Ashland high.

School Holds Elections; Hitchcock Is President

(Right) Howard Wiley, editor of the Rogue Annual. Howard has a good sense of humor and has had experience. You can depend on him.

After a vigorous three day campaign, the student-body elections took place on Friday, May 17. Capable students hold every office and the school is to be praised for its wisdom in choosing these officers.

As president, Dick Hitchcock will guide high school affairs during the next year. Jean Bulls, as secretary, will handle the books. Clarence Woods will act as senior vice-president, Laurence Gill as junior vice-president, and Wardlow Howell as sophomore vice-president. S. A. Peters will again take care of the finances of A. H. S.

In the literary line Hubert Herndon and Howard Wiley were chosen.

Hernon, ever efficient, will edit the Rogue News, while Wiley says that he is going to put out the best annual ever printed for Ashland High.

The votes were close and the spirit and interest in the election were good. The student body joins together in congratulating these future leaders and in backing them through the coming year.

Girls Enthusiastic Over Spring Sports

There has been an active and enthusiastic interest displayed in baseball track, and tennis this spring. A girl is entitled to turn out for any two of these sports but not for three.

Two baseball games have been played off. One was a victory for the seniors over the juniors. This was a very close game, the winners being designated by one point. The other game was a victory for the sophomores over the seniors. The score for this game was 24-6. There are still a few more games to be played.

Track has been a favorite sport this year. Many girls have spent an hour after school each night to practice jumping, running, and throwing. To win one hundred points in this sport a girl must qualify in five out of seven activities and must also have

Hi Y Meetings End; Seniors Bid Farewell

The last meeting of the HLY was held Tuesday evening May 13th. Gus Moore turned the meeting over to Tom Simpson, who is the new president. Seven Seniors gave their farewell speeches, in which they expressed something of what the HLY has meant to them. The training teamwork and the incentive to Christian thinking were stressed in these talks.

Mr. Walter then presented Gus Moore, the retiring president, with the HLY pin and caved in appreciation of his services as president of the club.

About twenty members are expected to return in the fall. This is the largest number the club has ever had with which to start the year. With this large nucleus around which to build next year's club, it is expected that it will be the most successful in the history of HLY.

SENIORS PRESENT ANNUAL CLASS PLAY

Acting of Cast is Done to Perfection Friday Evening

CROWD IS PRESENT

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" Makes
Big Hit and Causes Much
Laughter

The Senior class play, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," was given Friday night, May 17.

A large crowd was present and many compliments upon the excellent work done by the cast were heard.

Gus Moore, as Mr. Temple, took lessons in being from Frank Fuller; that part was played by Tom Bewick. Dolly Trask, as Mrs. Temple, alternately wept and rejoiced, and Frances Philippott, as Mrs. Fuller, was a charming complication to the affairs of the two men. Norma Brower, as Mrs. Temple's sister, was won by the dashing Captain Sharp, which part was played by Duane Malons. Comedy was added by Harry Smith, who played the part of John Brown, the hairdresser, and Jane Snerard, as Mrs. Brown, who "never was known to raise her voice." John Billings took the part of Wigson, the butler, and managed successfully to be in everyone's way.

The plot was an interesting one, filled with queer coincidences and comical situations, and at last, when it seemed the three happy homes would be broken up, the explanation came, and everyone lived happily ever after.

Hitchcock To Be Captain of 1930 Football Team

In a meeting of the football lettermen, Dick Hitchcock was elected the football captain for next year. With seven or eight lettermen back, a winning team is anticipated by those interested.

The lettermen are also sponsoring a big block "A" which is being built up on the side of Grizzly Peak. The letter is 250 feet long and 150 feet wide at the base. About twelve fellows went up and made the outline and expect to go up to finish it sometime before school is out.

The figure was lighted up on May 11, at night with red fuses which caused a big attraction.
