Mutterings

Jack Enders had been taken before a judge and not signaled and had been hit by another car.

"And why," asked the judge, "did you not signal?"

And Jack answered: "If they couldn’t see my car, how could they see my hand?"

It might be well for aspiring self-teachers to spell the spelling of such words as T-E-A-M.

Miss Kilgore was heard to say that she thought she’d pick an Oregon fir and send it home to Ohio for Christmas.

At Crater Lake a slide from a big tree is exhibited, showing by dates the age of the tree relative to important happenings in history.

"And that," said Miss Magoo, pointing to the bark, "is when Miss Kilgore and I came to Ashland.

Wardlow: Howell to garage man: "Do you do repairing here?"

Garage man: after one look at the Howell Ford: "Yes, but we don’t do manufacturing."

Sophomores are laughing un their absence at the down-fall of the upper-classmen whose at tempt to uphold tradition failed. History repeats itself and we again have joint-occupation.

During a recent pop rally John Denton’s Room-Room was interrupted by a young lady’s foot. Mort - Keep your eyes open for stamps.

Miss Lockhart: You can testify to my ability as a cook, can’t you?

Miss Hodges: "You’re one of the few most adopt of evening gowns I have ever seen."

Wanted: a gentle horse to ride -or for sale, fine new pair of riding boots. Inquire Miss Tjosdal. Typing room.

Here is something for the sophomore boys to think about.

Football is like any other game or sport or even musical lessons: it takes good, hard practice year after year. You fellows have three years ahead of you, so why not get out and practice and learn how to play the game right.

Don’t think, "Oh I’m a little fellow now; I might get hurt."

I’ll wait until I’m a big big senior, then I’ll be a great star and all the girls will think I’m keen."

If you do, you won’t and they won’t.

June Graduates Venture Forth
(Continued from Page 1
Harriet Smith will attend University of Oregon, Everett Yeo and Richard Cassell are attending University of Southern California Lawrence Gill is attending Business College in Berkeley. John Edwards is going to San Mateo Junior College. Mae Powell is at the Home Missionary Training School in San Francisco. Eileen Crosby also is in San Francisco, in Nurses training. Maxine Em bert is attending Business College in Portland. Venita Houchland plans to enter Business College in Long Beach, California.

Several members of the class are taking Post-Graduate courses at the High School.

BEVERLY YOUNG DARING HEROINE
(Continued from Page 1)

Marietta Whitney as Mrs. Van Zile, has a character part with considerable opportunity for comedy, as has David Johnson, playing the Commodore, and Rachel Forsythe, playing Mrs. Davis, all gossips.

Hilbert Anderson, as Stiles, the cardroom, Helen Wilcox, as Parker, the maid, and Karl Moore, as Prentice, the son of Mrs. Van Zile - Marietta Whitney - have small parts but which call for clever characterization to get across, according to Miss Hodges.

One part, that of Petrovski, is still open to some ambitious student, male preferred.

THINGS YOU SEE AND BEAR MUCH OP AT SCHOOL
Frank Hiltigins studying - Wade Hanson humming out song Sophomores going in and out of the front doors. "They say there will be no geometry this afternoon, etc." Grace white and clean but now dirty cords.

Leaflets on the front steps What subjects are you taking this year? Are you going to the same Saturday? And last years seniors taking Post-graduate courses.

Great Commotion ensued one Monday, when the advanced Latin students learned that their carrels and note-books, made last winter, took first and second prizes at the Jackson County Fair.

The winning entries, carved from ivy, soap, consisted of Roman pictures and buildings. The note-books, which were about the different Roman religions, and styles won second prize.

Miss Tomlinson remarked, "I am very proud of my Latin students, and I think the work is good."

SOCIETY
A get-acquainted party was held September 17 after school for the new girls. A stunt act was held in the assembly. The new girls’ room was officially opened and games were played in the gym, after which refreshments consisting of chocolate and wafers were served upstairs.

The Hi-Y boys annual mixer was held Thursday evening October 1. It’s purpose was to get all new boys acquainted.

Junior High
In accordance with the new state law, teaching of character has been started. The qualities that will be studied are honesty, reliability, resourcefulness, aspiration, and fair play.

The football prospects for this year look good. There are a lot of good men from which to build an excellent team, and Coach Rogers hopes to capture the conference title.

Don’t Fail To Read... "LIFE AS SHE IS NAUGHT" Next Issue Rogue News

One Quart Semi-Luster and Brush $1.09 CARSON-FOWLER LUMBER CO.

Addis Drug Store "Drugs For Less"

Lithia Springs Pharmacy Green Trading Stamps with SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Lanes ON THE BOULEVARD
Welcome Students

MT. ASHLAND SERVICE STATION "Texaco Dry Gas Is the Best Gas"

Wolter’s Self Service Grocery
Ashland’s Leading Food Merchant (Across from Viking)

Rent a Typewriter
ELHART’S BOOK AND MUSIC STORE

State Bank of Ashland ON THE PLAZA
Ashland, Oregon

Headquarters for Locks, Keys and Bicycle Supplies
FIXIT SHOP

Football team more power to you— ELKS BARBER SHOP

School Supplies Candy, Fruit, Ice Cream and Pastry
East Side Ice Cream Near High School

Dr. R. L. Burdie Dentist
Hersey Building

J.C.PENNEY CO.