

MIDYEAR SOPHS TO TAKE PLACE IN SENIOR HIGH

ONLY THREE UPPER SENIORS
WILL BE GRADUATED
THIS SEMESTER

NEW SPORT MATERIAL

Classes To Graduate January 28;
20 Sophomores Replace
Outgoing Seniors

To take the place of the three who will be graduated from the senior class at midyear, thirty sophomores will come from Junior High. This is eight more than the number which came over last year at midyear and 34 less than those entering the high school last September. A large percentage of the new sophomores have been prominently associated with sports, band, orchestra, and debate in Junior High.

The graduating class includes Harriet Carlston, Leonard Gosnell, and Carlock Johnson. Leonard and Carlock have been closely identified with sports, and Harriet has won herself a place as a short and scrute.

Those coming from Junior High include the following:

Orville Baalgard, Jean Billings, Dorothy Beutel, Elene Clawson, Thelma Conley, Lovette De Armond, Virginia Ettemiller.

JUNIORS DIGGING DEEP IN PURSES

By LEROY LINDNER

Aw! Please. Won't you even buy one little lunch from the cafeteria?

Aw! C'mon, be a sport. You won't! Maybe you'll buy some candy then? Will you? Pretty please.

Oh! thanks so much, Mister. You know it takes quite a bit of money to put on a good prom. Who's getting on the prom? Why we Juniors, of course! You don't suppose any other class would be putting on a good prom. Do you?

Be sure to tell your friends what good candy you got here. Yes, I said good. Good-bye. Oh! Wait a minute, you forgot your change. Here it is. Well, good-bye.

Come again, when you want some more good candy or food.

Birds of Oregon Shown In Slides

Mr. Baker, In Interest of Portland Museum, Shows Illustrations In Assembly

In the eerie light of a blinded assembly, Mr. W. S. Baker, known to all the Camp Fire Girls as "Daddy Baker", entertained the student body recently, with a lecture on birds. His lecture was illustrated by lantern slides showing the birds in color. He is traveling in the interests of the Portland Museum.

The pictures included common Oregon birds which Mr. Baker described, telling their queer habits and idiosyncrasies. After showing the birds, he showed a few scenes taken at Camp Hanawa, the Portland Camp Fire Girls camp for which he is the administration head.

Arguing Squads Are Reorganized

Changes Made Necessary Due To Loss of Affirmative Team Member.

If it had not been for the loss of an affirmative debater, the debate squads would now be continuing their work in much the same general trend of the work done all fall.

Losing the one debater, Bernard Applegate, however, created the necessity for more debaters on the affirmative squad, so a number of changes were made before the squads are as they now stand.

George Smith, Rachel Forsythe, Janet Gould, and Wilcox Smith are working on the negative side of the question. Resolved, that the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance. The affirmative is being developed by Beth Joy, Preston Beout, Pauline Ward, and Margaret Cadzow.

Much of the work at present is being done on the speeches. After the speeches are completed, they will be memorized, and then presentation will be studied.

STUDENT GOES TO HOSPITAL

Rosa Franco, who early in the fall had to leave high school and give up graduating with her class this spring, left Thursday, January 6, for Portland where she will be treated in Dr. Coffey's hospital for a few weeks.

A number of students and friends were at the train to wish her "bon voyage" and success.

Confidence Held In Key Pounders

Typing and Shorthand Speed Squads Preparing For Contest.

"I have a great deal of confidence in this year's prospects; much more than I did last year," states Miss Tjosdal concerning the typing contest held in Medford next April. From the amateur ranks a score of 72 words a minute has been handed in, and Betty Dean, of the novices, made 46 recently. These scores are far higher than those of last year and Miss Tjosdal entertains high hopes of being able to take her team to Corvallis for the state contest. Tryouts will be held next week for the speed squad.

A resolution will be presented to the student body for their decision later on in the year, providing for large, felt "A's" for the members of the team.

Miss Beck, as well as Miss Tjosdal, is planning on preparations for the coming contest in shorthand. Keen competition is witnessed among the novices, since a large number are planning on turning out for it. Only two, Beniah Hervey and Edith Arnold, are eligible as amateurs; however, confidence is far from lacking in this activity.

The squad has not been selected yet, but will be this week.

Early American Life Is Depicted

D. A. B. Program In Memory Of Wedding Anniversary Of Washington.

Life in the days of George Washington was depicted in a program by the Daughters of the American Revolution, commemorating the 172 anniversary of the marriage of George Washington and Martha Custis, January 7.

Popular music of that period was presented by Miss Ellen Galey, accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell. A bit of history and comment was given with each number. Among the selections played were "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes", "Girls and Boys Come Out to Play", "The Girl I Left Behind Me", the popular minuet, "The Haymaker's Dance", "The President's March" and "See the Conquering Hero Comes". The last number played was "A Death March in Monday", written by Benjamin Carr.

CONFERENCE CUP AIM

Game With Grants Pass Will Prove Ashland's Strength and Stand In Conference

By DAVID JOHNSON
Medford stepped in the other night, shook hands with Grants Pass and then proceeded to lick 'em by the catastrophic score of 66 to 11.

At about the same time, Ashland won from Yreka with a score of 27 to 15.

The fans of Southern Oregon are now watching and waiting to see what the outcome of the Ashland-Grants Pass game will be. This game will more or less tell a lot about the respective strengths of Ashland and Medford. Of course, there is the chance that Grants Pass will not tired of being used as a score board, but judging from Ashland's playing the other night against Yreka, there is small chance of a comeback for the Climate Boys.

Ashland High plays Grants Pass, at Grants Pass, on the fifteenth of January. About a week later we play Medford here. Hume has it that Medford has developed a team.

Since Deot hurt his ankle in the Yreka game, anxiety has

LIBRARY READY TO AID STUDENTS

"Blow, blow, thou winter wind
Thou art not so unkind as man's ingratitude."

There is one institution in Ashland that is always ready to help the students of Ashland High, and that is the public library.

The librarian there and the school librarian have set aside three shelves which have been prepared for the High School students. The books on these shelves are those which are popular among the High School students in the Middle West.

So far, very few of the selected books have been used. Is it ingratitude?
