DEBATE SEASON AWAITS QUESTION

What will Ashland do in debate this year? All of the debaters certainly wish that they knew.

However, preliminary investigations reveal confidence of a good team. Two of last year's varsity debaters, George Smith and Rachel Forsythe, are here again. Several people who are new this year have had previous experience in debate. They will be counted on quite heavily to aid in arguing. Also, a number of students, who gained wide experience last year but didn't make the team, will be back again this year and will stand a good chance of making the varsity squad.

As the question for debate has not as yet been received, work has not started. Those interested in debate are waiting for the first signal to begin the season's work.

Director Seeks A 'Buddy' Rogers

"They'll Do It Every Time"
Chosen Anniversary
Production.

Entry! Entry! The next edition of the Rogue News will carry the cast list for the Anniversary play. A large turnout is expected for "They'll Do It Every Time" is the title of the play which has been selected for this year's presentation.

Advance information has been gained from Miss Hodges director, that "They'll Do It Every Time" is rife with opportunities for ambitious actors who would like to try their hand at characterizations. In fact, Miss Hodges thought seriously of inserting an ad in this edition of the Rogue News worded, "Wanted: A Buddy Rogers!" Why? Well, it seems that the story of the play concerns a young man who had a jazz orchestra. Everything went swimmingly until the young man was informed that the radio engagement he had been offered was rescinded, because they didn't want his type of music.

Of course his friends went back on him—"they'll do it every time", don't you know. Poor man, the only restitution lay in the fact that "the" girl was still for him—you know—and thus the story of the hard lines the young Rogers who procures the part will have to speak. Oh, but it is a fine chance for some of these blushing sheiks—and don't forget there's a girl in the cast!

COACH PLEADS FOR MORE PEP

"Pop up," said Coach Faber at the first rally of the season. In speaking further to the students, he said that the football boys needed the backing of every member of the student body and that none could be down on the job if we are to have a winning team.

The rally was led by Edgar Blake, cell leader last year, and LaVerne Dalenburg, candidate to fill the vacancy.

Pearl Arant and Janet Gould tried out for song leader.

Seniors In Race For Editorship

New Constitutional Amendment
Makes Amendments
By Merit.

Rachel Forsythe, George E. Smith, and Lloyd Arant are working for the editorship of the Rogue News for this year. The three seniors have submitted their plans for the organization of the paper to Miss Lockhart. To test their ability they are gathering news, writing headlines, editorials, feature stories, news stories, and with the help of the journalism class are editing this paper. From these three aspirants the one who shows the greatest ability will be selected for the future editor. The selection will be made according to the constitutional amendment of last spring which made the editorship appointive. The power of appointment being granted to the executive committee and the Rogue News faculty advisor.

Student Direction Is New Music Plan

Miss Helen Kilgore expects to have some groups well worth listening to this year. The girls' glee club meets Mondays and Wednesdays in the music room the sixth period. The boys' glee club on Tuesdays and Thursdays the sixth period. Those in the girls' club are Pearl Arant, Dorothy Berns, Evelyn Doss, Ross France, Arline Gossett, Janet Gould, Helen Gould, Helen Madden, Frances Maxon, Theda Manchester, Genevieve McGee, Maxine Miller, June Miller, Barbara Miller, Nella Putman, Anne Preston, LaVerne Ramsey, Carrie Reedy, Maurine Robinson, Frances Spindler, Ruth Warren, Marietta Whitney, and accompanist, Maxine Miller. Those in the boys' club are Bernard Abrams, Lloyd Arant, Kenneth Evans, Wayne Heard, LeRoy Lindner, David Owens, Meredith Durham. No accompanist has been chosen yet.

Last year Miss Kilgore established something new in the way of student conductors, and this year the same plan is to be maintained and tri-tons will be held next week. Election of club officers is also to be held. The offices to be filled are president, secretary, treasurer, librarian, social chairman, and publicity manager.

Due to "the depression" an operetta was not given last year, but Miss Kilgore entertains hopes for this year.

When the Ashland Grizzlies take to the gridiron tomorrow they will clash with a strong foe. It is said that the Klamath Falls team will have a decided advantage over the Ashland squad. Klamath is still using the running backfield formation that worked so well against her opponents last season.

Klamath's squad put up a strong bid for conference championship last season and has lost only a few of the first string men through graduation. Hauser, who was rated as the fastest back in the conference last year, will be back and in the line-up for Saturday's game here.

Coach Faber of Ashland is not saying much but is putting the team through a hard, strenuous practice every night. He is also trying out new material at different positions, and is going to startle Klamath Falls with a new and surprising attack.

Ashland has a hard fighting squad of boys and a good coach in Don Faber who is starting his first season at Ashland High. Coach Faber has a tough job ahead of him, since most of the squad is new and inexperienced.

With only three of last year's lettermen in the line-up, it does seem that the Grizzly squad will have the odds against them in bulk and experience. The team will be ready for Klamath Falls in spirit and fight even though they lack the necessary
