

BACCALAUREATE, COMMENCEMENT CLOSING AFFAIRS

liver the commencement address. This year's class has chosen for its motto, "Dreams, Then Deeds."

This theme will also accompany the Baccalaureate sermon, the subject of which has been announced as "The Challenge of the Unattained."

This also is an annual affair held at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Ashland Ministerial association. The affair will be on Sunday evening, May 21. The class is to meet early and enter the church in a body for the exercises.

The Rev. Sidney Hall is to preach the sermon for the class. The Methodist choir is going to furnish the music, with Mrs. Frank Davis at the pipe organ.

SENIORS WILL GIVE "ONCE IN A PALACE" EVENING OF MAY 12

Lloyd Arant
Slash—meek but anxious

John Harr
Cut—dumb but pert

Newell Elliot
1st Doctor—a courtier but wise

Merritt Schilling
2nd Doctor—vain but suave

Olan Sneed
Prime Minister—wise but fearful

John Denton
Green Page—lowly but beautiful

Ed Starr
Celley—simple but sweet

Alice Gleim
The Guard—harsh but tender-hearted, David Owens, James Martin.

Can you feature Newell Elliot running back and forth from throne room door? Could you understand Beverly Young's thinking that Karl Moore's royal head was stuffed with royal coat patterns? Or could you visualize Karl as the (royal) hen-pecked husband of Marietta? This rollicking fantastical medieval three act play, "Once in a Palace," is to be presented in the Senior High gym tonight at 8:00 o'clock so if you want to make these "supposes" come to life—well, go to the play!

CLARK AND REDFORD ADDRESS STUDENTS

S.O.N.S., also spoke to the assembly recently concerning the steps we should take in preparing a journey and then compared this with Life's trip. He also discussed with the Senior class the facilities of the Normal and answered questions concerning courses.

Artistique

THE GLEE Clubs gave a twenty minute program at the Normal School assembly Monday morning. The Mixed, Girls', and Boys' Glee Clubs each sang two numbers.

THE SENIOR girls are going through commencement activities this year very economically, having put a limit of $11.00 on the expenditures for these occasions. Many of the girls have said that they are going to wear organza or some such material that can be worn afterwards.

MAYBE some of you didn't know it, but the Rogue News receives papers from other high schools all over the country. Papers have been received from Honolulu, Cincinnati, Kansas, Virginia, etc. Papers are received regularly from most Oregon schools and others close. Why don't you glance at some of these papers? They're in the left end of the library and are placed there for you to read.

THE CAMP Fire girls work every year to put on their annual Stunt Show. The money that is earned at this entertainment is used to buy things that are needed to help run the camp. This year the girls feel greatly repaid for their work as a satisfactory amount was attained at the entertainment last Friday night.

THE ASSEMBLY has had several short skits presented there recently. The Junior High operetta cast gave a selection from their play. The Campfire Stunt Show group presented some selections, a Capt. Young, magician, amazed his audience with feats of magic, and the Senior Play cast gave a part of one act. These diversions have been little events in the school year.

ASHLAND TYPISTS WIN SECOND PLACE

class. In the shorthand contest, individual honors went to Lloyd Arant and Rachel Forsythe, the former taking first place and the latter third place. This contest was very close, and the contestants were but a fraction apart.

Miss Tjosdal is in charge of the typing team and Mrs. White of the shorthand. They, with Mr. Forsythe, accompanied the teams to Corvallis where the meet was held.

A mock faculty meeting was held before an assembly by the seniors of George Washington High, Danville, Virginia, recently.

"And, my dears," says Grandma Zitch, as she pulls out a yellow (with age) copy of the Rogue News for May 12, 1933, "Just look at my picture when I graduated from High School!"

A teacher in Oakland, has organized a Poetry Club. Its purpose is for those students who enjoy poetry to get together and discuss the works of recognized poets.

Just think, next year there'll be a brand new crop of Seniors—doesn't it make you feel ancient?
