GRIZZLIES MEET TIGERS TONITE

Annual Staff For 1942 Chosen By Editor

Plans for the 1942 Rogue Annual are well under way. It has been announced. The first staff meeting was held Jan. 14, under the guidance of Mrs. White, and class pictures were discussed. The following staff was appointed for the '42 Rogue:

A first draft of the annual has been sent to the engravers and the pictures to be engraved are to be sent the last part of February.

The general plan for the annual is the same as in years past, but many new features have been added to make it a bigger and better book for the year of 1942.

The staff is anxious to get to work on the actual writing for the yearbook but this will not start until sometime in the next two months. Each member of the staff wants to take part in producing an annual of which every student of Ashland high school will be proud, and that will serve as a pleasant reminder to each graduate of '42 of his high school career.

AHS Cagers Need Game to Hold Lead

A vastly reconditioned squad of Grizzlies travels to Medford tonight for the sixth district battle, with the Tigers as competition. The Grizzlies, after the slow, hectic battle last week with the Roseburg Indians, will be out to maintain their lead in the district race. Meanwhile, second place Roseburg engages the cellarite Clatsop at Grants Pass.

After winning four straight games in District four, Ashland went into a slump Saturday evening to drop the first game, 29-30. Previously the Grizzlies had walloped Roseburg 43-19 in the Indians' floor.

A revamped squad of Grizzlies will take the floor after a serious week of practice in a game that will go quite a ways in shaping out the district winner.

Probable starting lineup for the game tonight will be:

Ashland	Medford
Jandrus	Fawcett
Provost	Wall
Rail	C
Riggs	Munkit
Fowler	G
	Reynolds
	Herman

Rogue News Files Increase Steadily

While students and alumni of Ashland high are collecting old newspapers and magazines for the national defense paper drive Feb. 2-9, they are asked to be on the lookout for past issues of the Rogue News.

A file of the school newspaper is being made, which, when completed, will date back to 1922, the first year of publication. The files are slowly increasing since the search began last year.

The following issues are missing:

- 1922—Vol. I, all issues.
- 1923—Vol. II, all issues.
- 1923-24—Vol. III, Nos. 2, 4, 5, 8, 10, 12.
- 1924-25—Vol. IV, all issues.
- 1925-26—Vol. V, all issues.
- 1926-27—Vol. VI, all issues.
- 1927-28—Vol. VII, all issues.
- 1928-29—Vol. VIII, none needed.
- 1929-30—Vol. IX, none needed.
- 1930-31—Vol. X, No. 7.
- 1931-32—Vol. XI, none needed.
- 1932-33—Vol. XII, Nos. 2, 6.
- 1933-34—Vol. XIII, all issues.
- 1934-35—Vol. XIV, Nos. 7, 8, 9.
- 1935-36—Vol. XV, No. 2.
- 1936-37—Vol. XVI, No. 2.
- 1937-38—Vol. XVII, No. 5.
- 1938-39—Vol. XVIII, none needed.
- 1939-40—Vol. XIX, none needed.
- 1940-41—Vol. XX, none needed.

Ping Pong Ladders Scheduled by Boys

Two ping pong ladders have been started by the boys of Ashland high. One has 32 boys playing for the championship and the other is under the Hi-Y organization and consists of 28 boys.

These ladders have been placed on the bulletin board so that the progress towards championship can be watched from day to day by everyone.

Many girls have been playing ping pong but they have no ladder. The boys have two tables in their basement, the girls one. They are played on all the time during noon hour and before and after school.

DISTRICT NO. 4 STANDINGS	W	L	P	C
Ashland	4	1	200
Roseburg	3	1	150
Medford	2	2	500
Grants Pass	0	5	000

School Radio Drive Is Huge Success

Since Miss Hulst's senior girls started the ball rolling with their $3, the radio fund has been steadily increasing. The rooms which have raised all of their $5 or a part of it now total 70 percent.

Mr. Gastineau's junior boys sponsored a pie sale and took in $3. At the jamboree game Miss Fry's junior girls collected $5.20 on their pop sale. A candy sale sponsored by Mrs. White's group netted $2.55, while the junior girls of Miss Wood's group collected $1.80 on their sale of pom-poms.

Mr. O'Neil's sophomore boys reported a profit of $3.85 on their pie sale, and Mr. Wood's sophomore boys took in $2.20 on their sale of ice cream bars at the basketball game. Miss Lonsley's home economics class made home-made candy and sold it for a profit of $2, to be applied with the rest of the proceeds of these sales toward the radio. At the rate at which the fund is advancing now, the goal will soon be reached so the radio can be purchased and be ready for use by the student body.

Coach Gastineau DAR Representative Chosen From AHS

Here are some vital statistics on "Coach Jerry":

He was graduated from high school at Barrington, Mo. in 1931 and for four years he worked for an oil company. During this time he played A. U. basketball, playing in the national tournament in 1934.

In the fall of 1935 he entered Willamette university, which he attended for five years. During his last two years he coached at Chemawa Indian school.

He and Mrs. Gastineau came to Ashland at the start of the 1940 school year and in his two years here he has had successful teams and has won the admiration of the boys on his teams, members of the school, townspeople and opponents.

Here's hoping that Coach Gastineau will stay with AHS and continue his fine record.

Pep Leaders Dress In Red and White

At the Medford-Ashland game Jan. 16, the yell and song queens and their assistants appeared in new costumes. Sue Parkinson and Jo Curtis, song and yell queens, were dressed in all-white dresses with swing skirts and fitted bodies with long, full sleeves. They were military style trimmed in red buttons.

The assistants, Vyvyan Freeman, Ida Willard, Betty Jo Burns, Audrey Wilcox and Mary Curtis, wore red skirts with white blouses, the same style as the leaders' outfits.

"SLAM SESSION" IS THEME OF HI-Y MEET

"Slam Session" was the theme of the Hi-Y meeting held last Wednesday at high school.

During the meeting members of the club were sent from the room while other members gave constructive criticism to help the boys toward a better personality and character.

GRIZZLIES WIN OVER GRANTS PASS CAGERS

The AHS Grizzlies won a thrillinger on the Grants Pass Cagersmen, Tuesday, Jan. 20, by a score of 34-30. The Grizzlies led until the middle of the fourth quarter when the Cagersmen came out in front to lead 29-26. With just a couple of minutes left to play the Grizzlies came back strongly to put the game on ice.

Seniors Make Up Activity Committees

Committees have been organized recently under the direction of Mr. MacCracken for senior activities that will take place in the spring, centering around graduation. The following have been appointed:

Announcements for caps and gowns, Jo Curtis, Agnes White and Bill Cooke. Senior activities budget, Dick Finnell, Chuck Jandrus, Chet Fowler, Peggy Whittle, Celene Morgan and Dole Frisberger. Rings and pins, Frank Carroll, Betty Nichols and Dorothy Allen.

Celene Morgan was chosen representative of the class of '42 for the annual citizenship contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution in an election held last week by the senior class.

Celene will receive a pin from the organization and a questionnaire, which, upon completion, will be entered into competition with the questionnaires of all other Oregon high school representatives. The owner of the best questionnaire as judged by the DAR will be awarded a trip to Washington, D. C., all expenses paid.

The rules of the contest state that the girl be selected on the basis of her dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

Celene was chosen from a group of three who previously had been selected by the faculty. The other candidates were Betty Dunn and Wilma Fruman.

Ashland Hi Helps National Red Cross

Sixty dollars was one-third of the proceeds taken from the basketball jamboree held here with Grants Pass that was given to the Red Cross.

Tickets that were bought for the jamboree supported three purposes: money for new band uniforms, student body fund and the other third for the Red Cross.

Quill and Scroll Holds Initiation

Seven new members were initiated into Quill and Scroll, Jan. 22, at the home of Mrs. White.

Bows made of paper, worn during the day, started the initiation, where it was continued that evening, when each member was brought into the society.

Those being initiated included Arline Conley, Helene Clark, Rose Angela Sander, Jean Lister, Fritz Bushling, Al Newby and Bill Van Vleet.

After the initiation ceremony, refreshments were served.

Others wishing membership in the society should see Mrs. White.

Mr. Wood Plans Debate Team

Debate team is being organized under the direction of Mr. Wood. Seven students responded to the call for those interested in debate; four will be chosen for the team.

Mr. Wood gave the students an idea of the outline for debate this year. He also gave the procedure in which speeches will be chosen and given. He stated that Ashland will again hold debates with other schools this year as it has in the past. More definite plans will be announced later.

Those students who are trying out for debate are Bethel Tilley, Dorothy Ray, Frank Carroll, Betty Whittle, Velma Jones, Golden McCall and Harleise Wilson.

PAPER REQUESTED FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

Ashland high school has joined all other high schools in the nation in an all out paper drive beginning this week.

All students are urged to conserve school paper, using as little as possible, and not to destroy any waste paper for it can be processed for re-use.
