

ROGUE NEWS

PUBLISHED BY THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF THE ASHLAND, OREGON, HIGH SCHOOL

VOL. XXI

ASHLAND, OREGON, MAY 27, 1942

Number 9

Elam, Burdic Tie for Student Body Prexy

Bill Burdic and Bill Elam, both candidates for student body president, received the same number of votes last Friday, making a tie, according to the report of President Bud Provost.

Bill Kaegi, running against Lawrence Hall, was elected first vice president. Barney Riggs was elected second vice president. Dick Flaherty also running from the junior class, Mark Marcus and Jay Samuelson ran for third vice president from the sophomore class. Mark Marcus was elected.

Sue Parkinson and Betty Whittle were candidates for student body secretary, Sue receiving the majority of votes for the office.

The nominees gave campaign speeches before the assembly last Friday, and the election returns were announced the following afternoon.

Peg Whittle, Bill Cooke Chosen Valetorian and Salutatorian

Peggy Whittle, highest student in scholastic standing, will be valetorian of the class of 1942 it was announced this week. Bill Cooke, highest boy, will be salutatorian.

As in the past the valetorian and the salutatorian will each give an address at the graduation exercises; this year to take place Wednesday, May 27. Peg's topic will be "All Out for Victory" and Bill's "What Can We Do?"

Peggy is active in journalism as associate editor of both the Rogue News and the Rogue Annual and vice president of Quill and Scroll. She has also taken part in dramatics, both in the past and in staff.

Bill as a member of the band, orchestra, boys' quartet, swing band, and chorus is very active in music. He is also on the tennis team and an officer of H-Y.

Both Peg and Bill are members of the National Honor society.

Last 'Rogue' Honors Alums

In honor of the boys who have graduated from Ashland high school, who are in the armed service, this last edition of the Rogue News has been dedicated.

One edition listed the names of the boys and the department of the service they were in, although the list may not have been complete. Nearly the same list appears below; to whom the paper is dedicated.

John Icenhower, Arthur Kent, Bill Elhart, Gariand Holbrook, Donald Warren, Marshall Miller, Dr. R. L. Burdic, William Jacoby, Cecil Bounds, Robert Adams, Duane Baker, Joe McElfresh, Harry Barrett and Dale Adams have joined the navy. James Curtis, James McNair, Phil Ritter, Chuck Furdyce, John Bergstrom, Vic Sander, John Pratt, Earl DeLisle, Wayne Peterson and Robert Drooms are in the air corps.

In the army are Richard Long, Everleigh Clements, Edwin Russell, Leon Russell, Jack Setchell, Buzz Roberson, James Coomes, Bud Curtis, Ardis Warren, Joe Wurzer, Joe Burdic, Bob Burdic, Jack Bentley, Douglas DeLisle, Frank DeLisle, Clyde Young, Lynn Nesley, George Icenhower, Le Roy McNeil, Harvey Bergstrom, Glen Waybright and James DeLisle.

Others in the service whose rank is not certain include Allen King, R. G. Bailey, George Peachey, W. Peachey and David Bergstrom. Some are not graduates of this school but all have attended here at some time.

Betty Dunn, Chet Fowler Receive Citizenship Award

Betty Dunn and Chet Fowler were the two chosen for the Walter's Citizenship award of Ashland high last Friday.

This honor is based on good citizenship, high grades, and the participation in athletics, also a requirement of no smoking or drinking.

Fifteen girls and boys were nominated by three administrators and three faculty members of this school; the school board chairman, the superintendent, the principal, Miss Hulst, Miss Looesey and Mr. Wood were the nominators.

Chet's and Betty's names will be placed on the Walter's cup along with the other names that have been chosen from Ashland for nearly 20 years.

Girls' League Installs New Officers

New officers for the coming year were installed into Girls' League at a meeting held in the assembly Friday, May 15: Erlene Norberg, Laura Billings, Mary Curtis, Marilee Erwin and Shirley Speece.

Miss Hulst started the ceremony by pinning a "G" on the board, which stood for girls. Each of the old officers followed by pinning the next letter on to spell "Girls League". Then each officer gave a short talk on what the letters stood for. They are: I, inspiration, Betty Dunn; R, reliability, Lottie Burger; L, loveliness, Erlene Norberg; B, eagerness, Erlene Norberg; A, action, Laura Billings; G, graciousness, Mary Curtis; U, understanding, Marilee Erwin; E, education, Shirley Speece.

Shirley Cushing gave the reading, "Aloha" while Wilma Froman accompanied her and Marilee Erwin, Delores Erwin and Sun Parkinson sang the song.

The group sang "Auld Lang Syne" to conclude the program and the meeting was adjourned by next year's president, Erlene Norberg.

Alumni Banquet Scheduled May 29

Annual alumni banquet, honoring this year's high school graduates, will be held May 29, at the Elks' temple, beginning at 6:45 p. m.

Dinner will be served at 6:45, followed by dancing at 9:30 to 12:30. Steve Whipple's orchestra will furnish the music.

Raymond Linnier will preside, with Velma Brower acting as secretary.

The banquet is held each year in order to bring back all previous graduates and introduce them to this year's class.

The banquet is formal and there will be no charge on the part of the graduating seniors.

Honor Society Installs Seniors; Pledges Jrs.

Eleven members of the senior class were chosen on May 1 by a faculty poll to become charter members of the AHS chapter of National Honorary Society of Secondary Schools. They were selected on a basis of scholarship, service, leadership and character. To be eligible for membership the students must be seniors, in the upper third of their class, and have attended at least one year in Ashland high.

Students chosen for this honor were John Bell, Bill Cooke, Betty Dunn, Dick Finnell, Wilma Froman, Chuck Jandreau, Celene Morgan, Bud Provost, Jim Rath, Lois Redford and Peggy Whittle. The fourteen members of the faculty held four ballots before the final selection was decided. Each teacher then drew the name of one of the students chosen and sent a personal announcement of the honor that student's parents.

The "tapping" ceremony was done on Monday, May 4, in a special assembly. Miss Hulst drew the name of one of the students, then went to that student's place and pinned on him the ribbon of the society. The student in turn drew another name, and this continued, each student taking a chair on the stage after he had pinned his ribbon on. Following this, the 11 candidates repeated the pledge of the organization.

The group will be supervised by Mr. Wood and Miss Hulst and the formal initiation ceremony will be in charge of the Grants Pass

HARLALEE WILSON WINS ELKS' CONTEST

Harlalee Wilson received a prize of $10 as the winner of the Americanism essay contest sponsored by the Elks lodge ended on May 1. Celene Morgan received a third prize of $7 and Justin Smith of Yreka received second prize.

The essays, not to exceed 500 words were original works of high school students and were judged by the local school staff, which turned over the three best essays to the chairman of the Ashland Elks lodge. The essay chairman of the local lodge then picked the three best essays in his jurisdiction. Several other high schools besides Ashland entered in the contest.

Harlalee and Celene read their winning essays at an Elks meeting last Wednesday evening and received their prizes.

chapter and was held on May 19, 19.

Juniors Pledged
Bill Burdic, Bill Elam, Harlalee Wilson, Marilee Erwin and Erlene Norberg were the five juniors pledged to the society last Tuesday. Lois Redford tapped the first member and he in turn tapped the next, until the five had been pledged. These juniors will be the nucleus for next year's club and will pledge the remaining members then.

Here's to the Army and Navy.
And the battles they have won;
Here's to America's colors—
The colors that never run.

—Author unknown

