

SEE 'LITTLE DOG LAUGHED,' MAY 1 AND 2

ROGUE NEWS

Published by the Associated

Students of the Ashland, Oregon, High School

Number 7

ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL, FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1952

Students Petition For S.B. Offices

With student body elections less than two weeks away, several students are passing around for signatures the petitions that will enable them to run for an office.

To be eligible, a student must have an average of 3 or better, and must have a petition signed by 30 other students. These students had turned their petitions into the office by Thursday morning: Bob Myrick and Gregg Lininger for president; Dick McNeerney and John Rayson for first vice president, and Maxine Champion, Carlene Engb, Norma Stephens, Barbara Wray, Sandra Clary, Johnnie Johnson, Nancy Graber, Pat Austin, Carol Culp, Ramona Mitchell, Jeanette McDonald, Mary Jean Davis, Pat Abbott, Pat Misenheimer, Mary Morgan and Ronnie Nosler. Seven of these students will be chosen for yell leaders.

As the petitions do not have to be in the office until 4:00 Friday, several more students are sure to have their "hat in the ring."

Those nominated for offices will give their campaign speeches in assembly Monday morning, and will have all next week to complete their petitions will be next week.

Senior Class Votes

The senior class recently held elections to select the outstanding girl and boy, the baccalaureate speaker, and the class flower and motto.

Carol Sullivan and Laurence Lebow were voted most outstanding by their classmates, and their names will be inscribed on the plaque in the hall with other years' winners. Vida Childers, Millicent Tower, and Barbara Hild were also nominated for the outstanding girl, and Charles Peter and Harold Fowler for the outstanding boy. Last year's winners were Virginia Reibel and Jerry Elliott.

Rev. Jondrow of the Presbyterian Church will address the seniors at the Baccalaureate service, and Mr. Victor P. Morris, Dean of the School of Business Administration at the University of Oregon will speak at commencement.

The carnation will be the class flower, and the motto chosen is "Climb High, Climb Fast Your Goal the Sky, Your Aim the Star."

Fashion Show Featured At Annual Mothers' Tea

The annual Mothers' Tea will be held in the gym today at 3 p.m. President Vida Childers will welcome the mothers and introduce next year's officers.

Following the introduction, a fashion show is to be held. Some of the clothing modeled will be summer dresses, coats, spring formals, play outfits, and suits. Mr. Wiggins will play a clarinet solo, and Gayle Miles and Charlie Rensfield will give vocal solos. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

The following committees have planned the tea: on the refreshments committee — Chairman Maxine Champion, Bettie Davis, Carlene McNeerney, Nancy Graber, Ida Smith, Leona Richmond, and Millicent Tower; program committee — Chairman Carol Sullivan and Pat Austin, Gladys Cullop, Kathy York, Fay Hess, Barbara Van Vleet and Pat Abbott, decorations committee — Collette Perrine, chairman, Barbara Harris, Sara Wilson, Donna Brownlee, Jessie Mackie, and Betty Brenner; and the clean-up committee — Bettie Davis, Leona Richmond, Vida Childers, Janice Carter, Linda Whitting and Joan Day-Anderson.

The student council will elect students to the offices, which will include: 1 Mayor; 7 Councilmen; 1 Recorder, 1 girl assistant; 1 City Attorney, 1 girl assistant; 1 City Superintendent, 1 Engineer, 1 girl assistant; 1 Chief of Police, 1 girl clerk; 7 patrolmen; 1 Fire Chief, 8 Firemen; 1 Street Superintendent; 1 Water Superintendent; 1 City Judge.

Students Govern Ashland on May 1

In cooperation with the local and national Elks Club, the city of Ashland will cooperate in the Youth Day Observance, Thursday, May 1. On this day students of Ashland High School will run the city government with the regular officials in an effort to counteract a movement to be made by the Communists at that same day, to spread Communism throughout the world.

The student council will elect students to the offices, which will include: 1 Mayor; 7 Councilmen; 1 Recorder, 1 girl assistant; 1 City Attorney, 1 girl assistant; 1 City Superintendent, 1 Engineer, 1 girl assistant; 1 Chief of Police, 1 girl clerk; 7 patrolmen; 1 Fire Chief, 8 Firemen; 1 Street Superintendent; 1 Water Superintendent; 1 City Judge.

Y Members Attend Mock Legislature

Pat Abbott, Perry Casteel, Barbara Harris, and Don Laws will become state legislators for two days, when they take part in the annual YMCA Youth Legislature, April 18 and 19.

They will sit at the desks of the senators and representatives in the beautiful chambers at the state capitol in Salem, and practice all the tricks of lobbying to get their bill passed. They will be greeted by various dignitaries, and attend banquets and a tour of the historic capitol building, one of the most beautiful in the U.S.

Sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y, they will learn how our state government is run, and the various channels a bill must go through before it is passed. Pat and Perry, Senators, and Barbara and Don, representatives, will also meet many other members of the YMCA and find out how other clubs function. Mr. Pattison, director of the "Y," will drive them up for the legislature.

The Senate bill is one to provide for a retail sales tax of three per cent. In the House a bill to provide compulsory vocational training in high schools will be presented.

Band Presents Spring Concert

An enthusiastic crowd of nearly two hundred applauded until the AHS Concert band again played "Syncopated Clock" for an encore. The concert was held Friday, April 4, and was well received by the audience.

The program was "Apolo March" by Bruckner, "Military Symphony" by Gossec, "Pavane" by Ravel, "Themes from Capriccio Espagnol" by Rimsky-Korsakoff, "Triumphal March" by Greig, and an intermission of fifteen minutes. During the second half of the program the band played "The Four Horns" by Bennett, featuring Evelyn Rollins, Charles Peter, Clayce Hile, and David Williams. "Czech Polka" by Stratus, "Trumpeter's Lullaby" by Anderson with Harvey Woods, soloist, "Syncopated Clock," also by Anderson, "Deep Blues" by Lou Singer, with Bob Myrick, "Badinage for Brass" by Walters, and "Hall of Fame March" by Olivadoti.

Ten Debators Given Awards

An assembly was held Friday, March 28, to award the debate letters to the students who earned them. Mr. Herb Lewis handed the letters out.

Those who received letters were Maxine Champion, Norma Stephens, Collette Perrine, Charlie Peter, Clyde James, Bob Myrick, Leland Silver, Glen Eng, Don Laws, and Bob Laws. Gregg Lininger and Judy Ward did not receive awards because they were entered only in oratory and after-dinner speeches.

B. Sweeney Has Lead in Play To Be Given by Senior Class

"The Little Dog Laughed" and so will you when you see this three-act comedy by Vera and Ken Tarpley, to be presented by the senior class in the senior high gym May 1 and 2 at 8:00 p.m. The play is under the direction of Miss Laura Grubbs. Music will be provided by the orchestra, conducted by Mr. Bernhard Windt.

Wielding the magic wand in this strictly new and very modern satire on psychology is Barbara Sweeney as Laurie Huntington, a protégé of the famous Dr. Understreet at State University. "Here I am—home from college," declares Laurie, "expecting to find a normal, well-adjusted family! And what do I see instead? A bunch of psychological knots!"

Domestic "knots" become near-tragedies for Sid Huntington (Lawrence Lebow), his wife Martha (Barbara Hild), and precocious Wally (Jack Frost) when both business and finance take a downward trend for Sid while prosperity reigns for the rival Woods family, including "Deadwood" (Bill Bates), Lillian (Jessie Mackie), and their attractive daughter, Joansie (Ann Williamson), who is Wally's first choice and quite eager to help him and Laurie and the family feud.

Confident that her introduction to psychology qualifies her to straighten out her family's tangled lives, Laurie goes zealously to work. With the Zombrowski Ink Blot Test she lays bare the "inner personalities" of her mother's astonished and humiliated guests. Amelia Dennis (Linda Whitting), Caroline Blakesley (Leona Richmond), Grace Schoenbeck (Helen Bean), Walola Breckenridge (Virginia Shirley), and Theresa Brown (Millicent Tower), infuriated, they stalk from the house while Martha looks on helplessly and Laurie does a "wash-them-out-of-my-hair" dance to purge her emotions!

Carol Sullivan interprets the role of Miss Gustavsky, the maid. Gus is intent on competing with the meliphus umbellus umbellus for first place in the heart of Horatio P. Humeywell (Dick Reynen), expert in his field of birds and quite elusive; however, romance is in the air, not only for Gus and her Honey, but also for Mark Bradford (Ken Lance) and Laurie, who is susceptible to the attentions of this outstanding medical student. Other comedy roles are played by Elaine Rettman, Dan Hakes, Sr., and Lefty Hill.

Lights and special effects for this royalty production are provided by Robert Maxson.

Barbara Bugbee New President

Girls' League officers for next year were chosen in Girls' League meeting April 10.

The new officers are: Barbara Bugbee, president; Carol Jean Culp, first vice-president; Lois Downing, second vice-president; Lee Ann Leach, third vice-president; and Wanda Oden, secretary-treasurer.

Others nominated for office were, for president, Sarah Wilson and Pat Abbott, first vice-president, Marye Middleton and Joan Day-Anderson; second vice-president, Barbara Harris and Jackie Mathis; third vice-president, Elaine Falwell and Kathy Clark; and secretary-treasurer, Shirley Norbury and Sue Thorpe.

SIX WEEKS MORE

April 18—Girls' League Mothers' Tea

April 18—End of fifth six weeks

April 18, 19—Annual Hayward

Relays

April 25, 26—District Music Festival at Medford

May 1, 2—Performances of Senior Play

Early in May—Campus Day (Date uncertain)

May 16—Junior-Senior Prom

May 24—Last day of school for Seniors

May 25—Baccalaureate at Methodist Church

May 28—Graduation

May 29—Final exams for soph and juniors

June 3—Last day of school. Report cards out

That's all, kids! Vacation!

SCHOOL NEWS FROM NEAR AND FAR

Appear on television! Yes, that is just what eight outstanding chemistry students of Burbank, California, High School did recently, on a program sponsored by the California Teachers Association.

The senior class of Central Catholic, Portland, gave $200 to the school to buy a new school camera. It will be used to take pictures for the paper and annual.

Seventy-six North Bend students went to Cape Arago to plant trees. This is an annual conservation project of the science department.

The McMinnville senior class chose for their motto, "Tonight we launch: where shall we anchor?"

NEW SCHOOL?

It's Up to Them

Do you want a new physical ed. building and an addition to our present building? On May 1 a special bond election will be held so that registered voters may cast their ballots.

Urge your parents to make a special effort to go and vote "yes."

Roosevelt High School, Portland, held a talent show April 4. All profits went to buy a juke box for the school's Youth Center.

A brand new car recently arrived for the Drivers' Training students of Menominee, Michigan, High School. It is a 1952 dark green Chevrolet. Another Menominee news note — the senior advisor and social studies teacher has been teaching in the same room in the high school for 22 years!

Seniors of Roseburg High are going to hold their annual picnic at Lake Cleawox this year. But the lower classmen, who can't go on skip day, will have something even better — Roseburg High is having a new shop and physical education building built for next year.

"Mardi Gras" is the theme of the Grants Pass prom, to be held May 3.

The shorthand class of Sherwood High has divided into teams and is having a contest to see which can read shorthand the longest period without a mistake. The losing side is giving a party for the winners.

Two football players of the Elgin, Oregon, High School have been chosen to play in the first state "B" school Sliners game in Pendleton, August 30.

ART COURSES PREPARE FOR FUTURE JOBS

Machine woodwork is limited to juniors and seniors. It teaches the basic skills in the use of power tools. The students review the use of hand tools, and then study elementary joinery. The students are now working on furniture projects.

Carpentry, a sophomore subject, teaches the planning and building of model houses from the foundation to the shingles. Everything is built to 1/8 scale of a large house.

For students interested in metal there is general metalwork. Forging, arc welding, gas welding, art metal work, sheet metal work and bench metal work are taught in this class.

STUDENTS FOR FUTURE JOBS

are of school to get a job in some of the most advanced industrial areas of the world in Ashland, Oregon.

Industrial Arts Department, mechanical woodwork, metal work, advanced individual instruction.

By drawing the light the import of ink in draw introduction, how to use and the last process is making