APRIL 1, 1959

ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL, ASHLAND, OREGON

NUMBER 7

WINNING STREAK STILL IN EFFECT

Debators Champs Again

first place position to compet verse and Betty Duffy. After Karen Thomas poetry, Lining teams, Nancy Lininger and Dinner Speaking, Steve Peter Lewis and Nancy Lininger, June Yaple captured first place son and Betty Duffy.

Two contestants from ea in the district debate Herb Lewis.

Mr. Herb Lewis.

"Although no trophy is given for this distinction, Nancy and Jane won the privilege of attending the state debate contest in Corvallis March 18," added Mr

r. Lewis. The Ashland team defeated Crater, Medford and Grants Pass in the eliminations, debating on the negative and affirm-ative sides consecutively. Eagle Point, Phoenix, and Dimois Valley competed in the B' division contest with Phoenix victorious Phoenix debat-nix victorious. Phoenix debat-ors are coached by Mr. Bob Myrick, a former student un-der Mr. Lewis. Competition Review Individual competition will be held April 3-4 in Ashland with the same schools competing Only two participants from each school may enter each event.

Representing Ashland will be extemporaneous, Bill Ben-son and Jane Yaple; imprompand Bill

Oration, Jean Figher and event will be chosen to attend Phyllis DeBoer, humorous in the state tournament, repreterpretation, Bill Lawrence senting the Southern Oregon and Lynda Abbott; serious in district.

Nancy Lininger and Jane Yaple proudly hold trophies won at the Linfield tournament.

May 8 Production Date For Annual Spring Play

Do you have a desire to ap- Junior Miss. pear on the stage? Do you pos-men a talent for acting? Now May 8, in the Ashland High School's Little Theater under is the time to find out by try-the direction of Mrs. Susce. ing out for the Annual Spring Play. Everyone in high school us eligible.

The play, Junior Miss, is a three act comedy by Jerome Choduray and Joseph Fields. based on the story of the same name by Sally Benson. The cast includes six women and eleven men, with an interior setting.

Description of Characters

Judy Graves has always been just a little sister to her popular sister. Lois, who is quite a young lady Judy thinks that her father is having an affair with the daughter of his boss. Ellen Curtis. To save the famiy, she introduces Ellen to her Incle Willis Reynolds, who she thinks has just come home af-ter serving a term in Jail. El-len's father becomes quite ir-rated over the situation and in his anger fires Harry Graves. In the excitement, Harry has In the excitement, Harry has sent Lois boyfriend away and she too is unhappy. They have just decided to make the best of the idea of being poor when the aftuation changes. Finally, Judy emerges from the little girl stage to become a levely

Corey Wins Award

Mr. Varney Corey, Ashland High math teacher and football coach has been swarded a math scholarship by the National Science Foundation at Duke

SMOKER SET FOR APRIL 14

Ashland High's athletic department announces that the spring smoker will be held on April 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the Ashland High gymnasium

Ten bouts have been lined o, according to Mr. Bill Ley-old and Mr. Engle, match-main event Geor Moses will challenge Gary Cal-lahan in the 160 pound divi-sion, other matches include:

sion. other matches include:
Ron Guilmot, 107 pounds vs.
Richard Thomas 113 pounds;
Dewey Brown, 120 pounds vs.
Norval Conners, 135 pounds;
Beb Georgianna, 143 pounds
vs. Jim Maifield, 140 pounds
Terry Peoples, 145 pounds, John Ussery, 160 pounds vs. Ron Scholer, 155 pounds; George
Muses, 160 pounds vs. Gary Callahan, 155 pounds; Dave
Dixon, 160 pounds vs. Jim Stewart, 155 pounds; Galen Galen Dixon, 160 pounds vs. Stewart, 155 pounds; (Roberson, 170 pounds vs. Hicks, 165 pounds, Dale Peterson, 180 pounds vs. Lenn Han-non, 170 pounds; Bill Hickey, 180 pounds vs. Roy Bailey, 205

Admission prices for the e-51.00 for adults.

'Ashlandia' To Be Shown

"Ashlandia" the colorful payeant of old Ashland before Oregon became a state, will be presented Thursday and Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school gym.

Over 100 school students and faculty members will participate in costumes of pioneer times. Songs and dances of the period will be re-enacted with the story centering around an old pioneer, Grandpa Cary, played by Mr. Keith Mobley of Ashland High faculty.

The pageant was written and the music arranged by Bernard Windt orchestra and choed for the performance.

No admission will be charged for the event. The public is invited to attend both nights.

Rose Festival Trip Planned for Band

in the Junior Rose parade and grand floral parade of the Portland Rose Festival on June 11 and 12 in Portland. Their trip will be sponsored by the Ash-land Grizzly Booster Club. A benefit for financing the

A benefit for mancing the trip will be a melodrama, "He Ain't Done Right by Our Nell," to be sponsored by the SOC Players at Churchill Hall at 3:30 p.m., Saturday, April 18 The performance will include numbers of the gay '90's, ac-cording to Thelma Tabor, pres-ident of the booster club.

Dance and Social Follow

Dance and Social Follow
Following the performance, an "Old Time" dance with a box social will be held in Britt Hall. Music will be furnished by the AHS Grizzly Dance Band, under the direction of Mr. Raoul Maddox. Tickets for SOMETHING NEW TO BE ADDED!

Sighs of relief could be heard March I from the Annual staff as the final draft of the Roque Annual was sent to the publishers.

"Due to the year-long hard work, the Annual will be issued to students in May," stated Lee Osgood.

This year a summer supplement of eight to twelve pages will be published. The supple ment will cover the period ment will cover the period from March I to the end of the school year and will include the Prom, athletics, and office events. Previously, this section of the year has been included in the following year's Annual. The supplement will be issued to students maxt September and can be inserted in the back of this year's Annual.

Lee Occord is the evitor of Lee Osgood is the editor of the publication and Mrs. Sohler is the advisor.

Bell Awarded Music Honor

Herbert Bell received honors the All-Northwest Music set, March 4-7 in Seattle, hington

Herb and other musicians of the cornet solo section featured five selections at the final conrt climaxing the meet. Applicants were select the basis of music shillty and personal background. One thousand one hundred band, orchestra and chorus students from Gregon, Washing-ton, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and Alaska participated.

Ashland Grizzly band, flag the performance and dance are girls and majorettes will march $2.00. Each couple is to bring $2.00. Each couple is to bring a box lunch. Matinee tickets for the melodrama will be 30c.

Band Raises Money

We've raised over $300 by we've raised over sale to a band concert and a candy sale," states Mr. Maddox. "We certainly appreciate the help of the Ashland Grizzly Band Boosters and the Ash Chamber of Commerce," Ashland Additional money-making e vents to be sponsored by the band members will incude the sale of Centennial decals. A and a 7-inch one for 50c. Also, a spring concert will be given for the public.

Officers of the Ashland Griz-zly Band Boosters are: Mrs. Thelma Tabor, president; Mr. Clarence Bell, vice president.

Chamber Backs Trip
The Ashland Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the program and will provide the Shakespeareun float.

Elks Award Four Youth

Four Ashland High and one Talent High student were hon-ored last week by the Ashland Elks Lodge for scholarly and outstanding leadership.

outstanding leadership. Jane Yaple and George Com-verse received $100 as winners of the scholarship and youth activity award for the year. Bill Benson, Ashland High-senior and Carolyn Tiegs, Tai-ent High senior were given as award of $50 for youth setivi-ties leadership. Exalted Ruice Herndobler and Mr. Bud Silver, chairman of the scholarship committee made the presentation in be-half of the Elks Lodge.

Paper Receives Special Rating

Rogue News was awarded second class honor rating in national competition with schools having from 700 to national schools having from 700 1000 students. The award made by National Schools Min 1000 students. The award was made by National Scholastic Press in Minneapolis, Minn Pat Gibron, editor, stated that the judging was based on issues published during the first semester of the current year. Betty Duffy, junior, served as the assistant editor. Twenty-four seniors and juniors make up the staff in addition to the editors. tion to the editors.

The NSPA actually rates thousands of newspapers along with giving helpful advice to high school newspapers in the

Remodeling and Construction Plan for Additional Facilities

ing made for a new cafeteria, parking lot and the remodeling of the old cafeteria into a dancing room, reported Mr. Jobe after the Board of Direc-tors meeting March 15.

The cafeteris will be in new modern building in the area next to the parking lot. There will be dining tables which will allow four students and their meals to be placed very comfortably at each. The Reconstruction plans are be-dining hall will contain one hundred and seventy - five tables. There will also be a 15 minute break between second and third periods to take ad-vantage of the new snack-bar located in the dining room.

Our old cufeteria will be converted into a dancing room with cushion-tone walls and ceiling. Hardwood floors with special wax coats for better dancing will be a feature.

es in order to promote more social environment among the students.

Parking lots are becoming a necessity for the high school students and teachers. The parking lot next to the new cafeteria will be black-topped. marked off and a parking at-tendant employed to help avoid confusion.

pecial wax coats for better To those of you who have ancing will be a feature. reached this point and still be-Sixth period of the day will lieve us, April Fool!