

Flash!

EDITION. IT'S MY SALUTE TO YOU FROM SPACE.

> DEMETRIOS '59 AHS SPACEMAN

MAY 8, 1959

ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL, ASHLAND, OREGON

Pictured above from left to right are Jane Yaple, Mr. Herb Lewis, debate coach and Nancy Lininger.

Seniors Win State Debate Tournament

Nancy Lininger swept the honored first-place state debate rank in afterdinner speaking trophy at the state tournament in Corvallis April 17-18.

tive tournment, Jane and Nancy represented Southern Ore-gon in the state-wide eliminations.

Jane copped second place honors in extemporaneous

Duffy Selected Editor of Paper

Editor of the Rogue News for 1959-60 will be Betty Duf-

Betty was assistant editor of Betty was assistant editor of the paper this year and has been active in journalism throughout high school. She attended the Western High School Press Institute in Au-gust, 1958, at the University of Oregon Journalism School.

Hetty has also been active this year in FTA, pep club, and

Junior Prom Is Mystery Scheme

Everything is hush-hush on the Junior-Prom slated for May 22, from 8 to 12 in the

The Junior Prom committee working with FBI secrecy, will announce shortly the Queen and the Princeses.

By Bill Benson

The 1959 senior class has early completed an outstanding year in service to the com-

Last year the

In a grand finale of the de-speaking and was a finalist in bate season, Jane Yaple and radio Steve Peterson, a district winner, gained third place

Ashland was also represent-Corvallis April 17-18.

After winning the competive tournment, Jane and Nanve represented Southern Oreon in the state-wide eliminaous interpretation.

Nancy Lininger and Jane Yaple captured first place in the district debate tournament, March 7, before going to the state tournament representing Southern Oregon district.

Swish! Boom!

Have you over had the de-tire to see Mr. Buell or Miss dents with the prediction that she can wash windows three times as fast as any of her pupils.

Mr. Smith. Mr. Lewis.
Miss Henderson and several other faculty members are donning their work clothes and challenging the students

backing the event and all students and teachers will be urged to participate.

Paul Alley Wins Prexy Post In AHS Student Body Election

Paul Alley, junior, won the office of student body president in the school election May 1

Paul came to AHS from jun for high with experience as vice-president of the junior high student body. In his freshman year at AHS he was elec-ted president of the class, and this year he served as second vice-president of the AHS stu-dent body. He participates in two sports, baseball and basket-

In the race for the other of-fices the following were select-ed: Jeannie Millet, first vice-president: Forrest Farmer, second vice-president: Galen Rob erson, third vice-president; and Meredith Williams, secretary. Ida May will be treasurer. Rally Squad Selected From a list of 22 candidates, ZOOM . . .

PAUL ALLEY

squad were selected along with yell queen. Brenda Woods, junior, was Brenda Woods, junior, was Brenda Woods, junior, was selected as yell queen Hally squad membera elected were Sara Vandenburgh, Mikie O' Sara Vandenburgh, Market Keefe, Gay Schwiebert, Gayle Weller, Judy Lake, and Denie Dedge.

Election Tension Ran High
Jim Bjork, president of AHS student body, finished the official election count at 3:30 First day. More people voted this year than in previous years
due to the increased enrollment of the student body.
Jim proparies: "Campaign

ment of the student body.

Jim remarked, "Campaign speeches and posters were terrific this year with enthusiasmithe best I've seen."

Campaign posters plankered the building before the election with signs much as, "Have with signs such as, "Have Ideas — Will Work," down to plain "Vote for Me" signs

The new officers will be in-stalled this month, according to

Space Flight Group Are Ex-AHS Seniors Seniors Rate High Average

Every senior class has a few students that are able to main-tain a 3.00 or better grade point average. This year's class has 27 students which is a high humber above 3.06. Of this group, 17 are members of Hon-or Societ. Sobal March. or Society. Sybil Hamilton has the highest GPA. The following senior stu-

The following senior students are graduating with the GPA above 3.00.

Lyndis Abbot, Gerald Allen, Jim Bjork, George Converse, Phyllin DeBoer, Mayis Enblom, Jean Fisher, Cathy Fowler, Clinton Gillengie, Sybil Hamilton, Duane Jarnagin, Jerry Joy, Allan McKinnis.

Geri Miller, Jody Mittag, Jeanette Oeser, Lee Ospood, Charene Peterson, Diane flickenbach, Pat Roach, Joyce Stewart, Brachm Woodell, Ruth Want, Jane Yaple, Victor York Joyce Zickafoom.

sionaries Ruth Johnson and Geri Miller, of course, will make the passing pleusant. Bank Established

The first interplanetary Bank will be established by Jim Block, and remember, if Jim Block, and remember, if you can't trust your banker, who can you trust! Accountant Don Winner will keep the books straight, if possible, and Kay Allen' will be the "efficient" accretary.

Beauticians Gayle Mitts and Burbara Ford will keep our beauty in top notch shape Something else just as important as being beautiful it being protected and police sertant as being beautiful, is be-ing protected and police ser-geant Art Kiser will be on the job to guard us day and night. But in case this protection falls, our families will be cared for by the insurance policy sold to us by Sally Mackay. Banquet Preserved.

aire to see Mr. Buell or Miss Schuerman in overalis?
May 15 is your opportuni-ty. The teachers have chal-lenged the students to a school cleaning party on a Friday night after school.
Mrs. Susee has personally challenged some of her stu-dents with the prediction

Let's hope the students can do as well.

The student council is

Seniors going into space are pictured above, From left to right - Dee eSiby, Phil Bodenmayer, Terry Campbell and Dennis Johnson.

By Terry Campbell and Duane Jarnigan Space travel has come a long way since 1959. The United States, at the present time, (1966) is ready to set up a

Sen-Tennial Senior Review '59-'60

observed by other high schools.
Support March of Dimes
In support of the March of Dimes, the schior class spon-sored a dance which was suc-

any other senior play and wa centul. Seniors this year gave car veales and had charge of sev-eral concessions.

The senior assembly this Drive, contriberal concessions.

uting nearly The senior assembly this twice as much year was outstanding with a senior class. Senior was chairman and she was control or her princess. Priscil highly commended for her princess. Priscil highly commended for her commencement and baccalaurents.

The senior class play this year. Cheaper by the Dossa, brought more gate returns than groups wherever they choose.

Drive, contriberations which they have siready received.

At the present time the seniors are going ahead with their plans for commencement and baccalaurents.

Class officers of the class in close in close the class in the control of the control of the class in the control of the class in the control of the control of the control of the control of the class in the control of the co

In the fall, seniors ordered their cards and announcements which they have already re-series of colonies on various planets and planetoids. This revolutionary flight will be piloted by the famous test pilot, Dec Selby. The engineer will be Victor York assisted by Jer-Braziel Lynei Libbey will our stewardess and Herb il will be the ship's enter-

Baccalaureate will be beld
Sunday, May 31, and commencement, June 4
On June 2 there will be a banquet open to seniors only at the Tally Ho. A dance will follow the banquet.

In the Lall, scalers ordered their cards and announcements. the daring colonists.

Nurses Lynda Levison and Nancy Anderson will assist Duane Jarnagin in administer-Duane Jarnagin in administer- joo to guard us day and night-ing treatment for space nostal. But in case this protection falls, gia. Ray Childreth, space our families will be cared for pharmacist, will prepare the by the insurance policy sold to sugar pills. Because of this us by Sally Mackey treatment, funeral directors. Banquet Prepared Sue Heitz and Terry Campbell Shortly after our landing, will be necessary in order to we will enjoy a marvelous hap-care for the unfortunates. Mis-

