Students Meet, Prepare Bills

Pre-legislative meeting for the Youth and Government day held at Arhland High ol, February 13, at 9:30 to 3:30 p.m. There were 60 students present from this district which includes Med-ford Klamath Falls, and Ash-

The purpose of this district meeting was to acquaint the representatives planning to at-tend the Salem conference in April with parliamentary procedures and to read the vari-ous bills that the students had drawn up Gaylord Smith, Rev-erend Holland, and John Cook sere present to give the wel

Delegates Selected

Delegates were elected for all the offices that are to be filled by this district. Donna Mills was elected Clerk of the

Those present to aid and advise the representatives were Harry Skerry, Bob Duncan, Speaker of the House of Representatives in Oregon. Paul Campbell and Bruce Burns told of past experiences at the con-ventions in Salem.

Attending also were Lenise Christopher, Ashland Tri Hi Y advisor, Harry Wright Hi Y ad-visor and Bud Silver, Dean of

The clubs are planning on holding a number of money raising projects to send the delegates up to the convention.

The Tri Hi Y Zeta girls have also begun a project of clean-ing up the Y.M.C.A. They plan to work all day one Saturday in the near future and then hold a slumber party at the Y that night. They have already met once and worked on the up-stairs.

Radar Made By Students

ment and how it works time. Samuel Johnson, literary Craig said that the work is dictator of that time, lead the now stalled because of a defective circuit, but is is expected to be resumed soon. The fee house discussions were given under the control of the con

These talented people are a few of those who starred in the talent show (left to right) Dave Dixon, Susan Revel, Gay Schwiebert, and Danny Neilson.

A Lot of Work But It's All Fun

land Senior High School stu-dent body had, for the most part, participated in making part, participate. their talent show a su success their taient show a success.
This year a new idea was launched. This idea consisted of having students sudition for the show and the acts worth seeing and hearing would be submitted to the student body on the final day.

To create more interest, prizes would be given as to the best act, the best class partici-pation, and various other classifications for the prizes.

Dubbed the "All School Tal-ent Show," wheels began to turn Every act was auditioned and on the final day each act, in turn, displayed their talent to the AHS students.

The show seemed to be a big success to everyone. The tal-ent show as a whole seemed to be a welcome change of pace to everyone who participated," stated pretty Jeanne Millet, program chairman

Math Tournament For Any Student

Math students from the clases of Mr Day and Mrs Windt will participate March 7 in a contest sponsored by the Pu-ture Engineers of America The 28 Ashland students will compete against other math stu-dents who have not yet grad-uated from high school.

The purpose of the competi-tion is to develop initiative, self-reliance and responsibility in students of mathematics and local tournament winpete nationally if he is in the top 10 per cent of all entrants. Each student participating

Each student participating in the contest pays a fee for which he will receive a self-study kit. The only condition of the tournament is that no participant is to receive or ask help from teachers, but may NUMBER 5 until time for the content.

FRI. FEB. 16, 1960 ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL, ASHLAND, OREGON

Students Mimic Coffee House

Coffee house discussions fea-ring famous English authors uring Ismous were portrayed in Mrs. Susee's

Each student porticipating in these discussions identified himself as a famous literary writer of the seventeenth and eighteenth century, taking his religious, political, and liter-ary views.

Craig Pennington, a co-work.

The discussions mimicked the er on science radar in the sci-coffee house gossip, where ence radar project, states that famous literary men of the the main purpose of this project is to learn about the equipment and how it works.

Craig said that the work is dictator of that time, lead the common stated because of a deficiency.

Orchestra Plays School Programs

Washington's birthday was celebrated by the high school orchestra programs held in all the grade schools and in the junior high February 22. Thirty minute programs

Thirty - minute programs were presented at each grade school and one hour at the junior high.

Lunch was given for all members of the orchestra at Bellview School Music included "Csardos,"

Music Included "Coordon,"

American Fantasy," "Song of Norway," "Failing in Love with Love," and "Tea for Two."

Mr. Windt conducted the or Song of in Love chestra of approximately students.

The orchestra students stated that they liked the tour be-cause they had the chance to show the schools how our orshow the schools how our or chestra functioned.

Guests Speak About Military

Sergeant Jo A. Christine of the Navy and Sergeant Ar-berta A. Wurth of the Army spoke to senior and lunior girls oncerning the opportunities or them in the Armed Forces Tuesday morning February 23.

Questions asked by the girls and answered by the guests took up the 30-minute program.

Captain Gordon C. Hays spoke to the senior boys con cerning opportunities in the National Guard Tuesday, Jan-

Blair to Attend Band Convention

Convention to be held in Port-land March 16-18.

the convention are a general ments and valentine decora-high-rated music ability in ad. tions highlighted the dance dition to the band school stuff.

WITH A LITTLE BIT OF LUCK

Speakers Garner Trophies, Awards

Who says that "13" is an un- Duffy, first place impromptu, lucky number? Twelve weary senior women's division, and students and one beaming first in salesmanship. Peteroach, Herb Lewis, returned Kreisman, first place impromptrom the Linfield College tu, junior men's division. Jim from the Linfield College tu, junior men's division; Jim Speech Tournament in the wee Lewis, first place interview hours of the morning Februi, junior men's division; Judy any 21 boasting five first, five Eberhart, first place salesman second, and three third, and ship, junior women's division.

men's and junior women's for inexperienced contestants, sen-ior women's and sentor men's for the experienced speakers. Individual events took four rounds — three to decide final-ists and one to determine the winners. Debate team finalists compared seven or eight rounds. competed seven or eight rounds with the exception of junior men's division which required ninth round for a final deci-

Winners Named Ashland winners were Betty

Carolyn Holmes Crowned Queen

Junior Carolyn Holmes reigned as Queen of the Cupid's Ball beld in the cafeteria by the Student Council February 20

Queen Carolyn, Princess Pamela Melick, and Prince Steve Harris were chosen by a drawing held at the dance. Mrs. Susee, Mrs. Sohler, and In UN Contest Russell Blair, junior, will a drawing held at the dance, represent the Ashland High Mrs. Susce, Mrs. Sohler, and Band at the All State Band Mrs. Tenney, chaperones, drew nd March 16-18. The dance band plus records Requirements for attending furnished the music. Refroshrecommendation by Carolyn received a corsage The corsage of white gardenias.

ary 21 bonating even third, and second, and three third, and second, and three thorons.

Students totaling 577 from Burns, second place trophy in 30 schools competed in the an mual three day event held in McMinnville, Oregon. Every men's debate, Steve Pethodology of the croom, second place after din-McMinnville, Oregon. Every men speaking, senior men's divisions Bonate Experience
The tournament was divided into four divisions junior men's division. Sona Drager, second place interview, funior women's and junior women's for second place salesmanship, junior women's division.

Selection of the competition of the comp

The mixed team of Linda The mixes team of the con-neal and Gien Taber received a third place trophy in senior men's debate. Judy Eberhart, third place visual sids, junior women's division: Betty Duffy, third place after dinner speak ing, senior women's division. Linda Lewis, fourth place sales manship, senior

Other individual finalists in-cluded Glen Tabor, finalist in radio and oration, senior men's division; and Joan Drager, fin-alist in extemp speaking, jun-ior women's division.

Debaters are now beginning to prepare for the District Tournament to be held in March to determine representa-tives to the State Tournament in April.

Students Compete

Ashland's judging for the United Nations Contest will be gin March 1. The winning entries will then be sent to the district judging which will take place about March 15.

The Oddfellows Organization sponsors the Southern Continued on Page 3

Scholastic Students Score On Semester Honor Roll

semester honor roll, determined room those making all sophomores, and juniors, three six weeks honor rolls, has Freshmen qualifying a rebeen computed. Seventy-three Carol Bjork, Bill Bowman, students gained this honor with Charles Calhoun, Linda Deckfreshmen having the largest er, Claudia Everett, Nancy Grow, Diane Fieguth, Carol Hamilton, Carol Ha

Recently several students from the art clauses sent wood carvings and various other things composed by themselves to the annual Scholastic Arts Exhibition in Portland.

Darrell McCulloch, senior, and Gary Hegler, sophomore, received Gold Key awards for their outstanding art composi-

Sue Freeman, Cheryl Nelsen, and Judy Bjorlie are among the other students who entered art compositions at the exhibit in Portland

Schools from all over the state were represented with articles sent in by art students

ter honor roll, deter number, followed by seniors, freshmen having the largest er, Claudia Everett, Nancy Grow, Diane Fieguth, Carol Hamilton, Carol Harmon, Jame Hennick, Tod Hess, Carol James Jim Lamb, Terry McKinnis, Betty Martin, Paula Prescott, Sharon Roderick, Karen Woods, and Dorce Woods.

Sophomore students gaining recognition are Judy Benson. Richard Byrns, Nancy Conrad, Janet Covington, Judy Eberbart, Joy Hinkson, Karen Hinrichs, Dan Lewis, Janet Miller, Sue Mittag, Pergy Parsons, Karen Schopf, Ken Stevenson, Susan Thompson, and Delores Westgaard. Susan In-Westgaard.

Upperclassmen Named

elsen, Upperclassmen Named imong Junior meriting top grades
itered are Zola Palmer Acuff, Jerry schibit Burns, Shirley Champioo, Doane Hall, Pete Kreisman,
r the Bill Lawrence, Linda Lewis,
with Jim Lewis, Betty MacDonald,
dents.

Continued on Page 3