

Voris and Farmer Win District Championships

Medford piled up 154 1/2 points to win the District A-1 track championship May 20, on the Ashland track.

Ashland's Bob Voris triumphed in the high hurdles with a 14.6 clocking to tie, for the second time in two years, the district record. Forrest Farmer gained a share of the high jump crown by finishing in a four-way tie for first at 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches. On the basis of fewest misses, however, Farmer was first.

Grants Pass finished the meet with 137 1/2 points for second place. Far behind was Crater with 53 1/2, Ashland with 40 1/2, and Klamath Falls with 34 1/2.

Other point getters for Ashland were Tom Huff, sixth in the javelin; Voris, fourth, and Farmer, fifth in the broad jump; Don Way, fourth, mile; Mike McCartney, sixth, discus; Voris, third and Farmer, sixth, low hurdles; and Dave Colwell, tie for third, and Dan Lewis, tie for sixth, pole vault.

First and second place finishers qualify for the state meet in Corvallis. Any others that meet the qualifying standards also qualify. Voris qualified in the low hurdles by running a 29.3 third place.

GAA PLAYDAY HELD AT AHS

"Come and play with GAA!" This was the invitation extended to all GAA members and ninth graders to attend a softball playday held May 13, at the Ashland Senior High football field under the supervision of Miss Henderson, GAA advisor.

Activity began at 9:00 a.m. continuing through 12:00 p.m., during which time the girls participated in mixed baseball teams. For lunch the members brought their own sack lunches and punch was served.

GAA SELECTS NEW OFFICERS

On Thursday, May 18, the Girl's Athletic Association held election of officers for the coming school year.

Janet Miller, outgoing president, conducted the nominations. Those nominated were Terry McKinnis, president; Jane Hennick, vice president; Alice Hearn, secretary; and Kathy Zimmerman, treasurer.

The newly elected officers will take office immediately, resuming all official responsibilities of the club.

AHS Upsets Pels In Baseball Game

Ashland won its first conference baseball game April 15 by upsetting the Klamath Falls Pelicans 3-2.

Bob King pitched a four-hitter for Ashland. The Klamath duo of John Webb and Wally Palmberb also gave up four hits. The difference in the game lay in the fielding. The Pels committed three errors, while the Grizzlies played errorless ball.

Ashland scored two runs in the third inning on two hits and two errors by the Pelicans. The third AHS tally was picked up in the fifth.

Klamath scored one run in each of the fourth and sixth innings.

The non-conference game which followed resulted in a 17-0 romp for Klamath Falls.

Grants Pass Cops Three-Way Meet

In a three-way track meet held in Grants Pass, May 6, Grants Pass won with a total of 91 points, Crater placed second with 36 1/2 points, and Ashland finished behind with 23 1/2 points.

Bob Voris took all three of Ashland's first places, triumphing in both the high and the low hurdles and the broad jump.

Other point-getters were Forrest Farmer, second in the high jump; Stewart Hedges, fifth in the high jump; Mike McCartney, third in the discus; and Farley Buell, third in the mile.

Grizzlies Drop Prospect 7-4

Ashland picked up its second baseball victory over Prospect this season, defeating them 7-4 April 22.

First scoring came in the third inning with Ashland scoring two runs and Prospect picking up one tally. In the fifth the Grizzlies scored the winning runs scoring three times with the aid of three fielding errors and one walk given up by the Prospect pitcher. The only hit in the inning was a double by Larry Pierce.

Prospect added another run in the sixth inning and both teams picked up two more scores in the seventh.
