

GRIZZLY CLAW

By JAN SUSEE

After 13 games of the season, the Ashland High Grizzlies have a poor 9-13 win-loss record. Although their record seems to show a very poor team, they have come along strongly and their last two games have been quite interesting.

Against Crater, the Grizzlies were ahead or 1 or 2 points behind all the way. A last minute splurge by Crater provided the slim margin, 64-53.

Ashland led by 9 points at half-time against the Grants Pass Cavemen, but a cold third quarter lost the game 61-52. It was the closest the grizzlies have come to winning.

The JV's have been off and on lately, losing to Klamath, beating Crater, and losing to Grants Pass by the close score of 49-47. Jim Lamb, Dale Tepper, Tod Hess, John Polk, and Howard Johnson have also been dressing down varsity.

A strong Ashland sophomore team has split its games with Grants Pass at two apiece. They are one and two with both Medford and Crater with a game apiece remaining with each of them. They also have one more game with Klamath Falls. They
