

ROGUE NEWS

Ashland High School

Ashland, Oregon

June 5, 1962

No. 11

Rick Callahan, senior, is pictured above with his successor to the office of student body president, Mike Cotton. Mike was elected in the annual student body elections held April 27.

During the year 1961-62, Rick was assisted by Robert Ford, first vice-president; Chuck Calkoun, second vice-president; Judy Eberhart, secretary; and Joy Faronhurst, treasurer.

Dedicated to the graduating class of 1962, this is the annual Senior Edition of the Rogue News. By reproducing the school year 1961-62 in photographs, we hope to provide the seniors with a memento of their last year of high school.

The class of 1962 entered Ashland High School in the fall of 1958 as freshmen. They established themselves as true members of the student body in 1959, when they built one of the biggest sophomore bonfires in Ashland High history.

They will also be remembered for the Junior-Senior Prom which they presented in 1961. They are to be commended for winning the S-S-S day class competition, entitling them to a skip day on May 23, 1962.

Under their chosen motto, "We build the ladder by which we climb," they will graduate on June 7, 1962, in the Ashland Senior High School gymnasium.

Ashland High School's new student body officers are pictured above. From left to right: Carol Bjork, secretary; Nancy Lattiner, treasurer; Mike Cotton, president; Kay Moore, yell queen; and Rick Pierce, first vice-president. Not pictured is Scott Roberts, second vice-president.

Senior class officers are pictured above, from left to right: Dan Lewis, president; Maryann Woods, treasurer; Linda Gray, secretary; and David Squires, vice-president.

Members of the senior class Judy Eberhart, Sally Stringer, Yvonne Nielsen, Linda Gray, Bob Ford, and Karen Schopf exchange books and write in one another's autograph books.