Ashland Grizzlies Featured

By Bruce Bamfoth

Dennis Elder is the Grizzlies' overworked punting specialist. He has succeeded in getting them out of some tight spots with his tremendous punts. Dennis is a 6', 190 pound, seventeen year old senior who likes football, tennis, and cars. He was born in Salt Lake City, Utah and plans to enter Brigham Young University to go into the field of business administration. Dennis says that he has no favorite classes, he just wants to get through.

Mike Torresson is a 5', 9", 150 pound sophomore halfback. He has a stupendous running and pass catching ability and has sparked the Grizzlies to many touchdowns. Mike likes to hunt and water ski. He plans to go to Stanford and become a physicist. His favorite class is debate. Mike was born in Klamath Falls almost seventeen years ago. He says that his main dislikes are fakey girls and unfair school rules.

Dave Barger is a sophomore quarterback who has seen a lot of action this year because of his tremendous passing talent. Dave likes all sports and plans to go to college at Oregon State and become a star athlete. His favorite class is Physical Education. Dave is 6' tall and 160 pounds. He was born in Ashland and is sixteen years old. He dislikes losing in football.

Ron Boyce is a speedy, hard-fighting halfback for the Ashland Grizzlies. His hobbies are fishing and water skiing. This junior plans to go to Southern Oregon College for two years and then go to the Oregon Technical Institute. He likes Spanish the best of any of his classes. Ron is 5'6" tall and 145 pounds. He was born in Eugene and likes everything.

Howard Johnson is our first-string quarterback and a good one. He is very agile and deceptive. Howie likes all sports. He plans to major in P.E. at the University of Oregon. His favorite class is physiology (his father is the teacher). Howie is president of the Letterman's Club and has lettered twice previously. He is 5'11" tall and seventeen years old. He dislikes mushy apples and sour oranges.

TORNADOES TOP BEARS

Medford's Black Tornadoes trampled the Ashland Grizzlies 48 to 0 last Friday night in Ashland. The game was much closer than the score indicates. The Bears were able to move the ball and held Medford's offense on several occasions.

Brown Places In Cross Country

Gerald Brown, Ashland, placed third in the district cross country meet held in Klamath Falls, October 27. Brown, who was suffering from a slight case of blood poisoning when he ran the race, finished with a 11:56 behind Brumback of Medford and Lyons of Grants Pass. Brumback finished first in the time of 11:51, while Lyons finished second with a 11:54 clocking. Finishing out the first ten to place were: Scholl (K.F.) fourth; Lawrence (K.F.) fifth; Piper (K.F.) sixth; Woods (G.P.) seventh; Alvarez (C.) eighth; Swartzfager (M.) ninth; and Mallams (M.) tenth.

Those who placed for Ashland were: Jack Tyler, 11th; John Reid, 12th; Cole, 13th. Earl Iba placed 19th followed by Mike McGuire and Mike Dawkins who placed 22nd and 28th respectively.

Out of 210 contestants Gerald Brown placed eighth in the state meet in Salem, November third. Dennis Brumback of Medford took fifth place with Cliff Lyons, Grants Pass, taking 17th.

Cross County Defeats Klamath

The Ashland cross country runners defeated the Klamath Falls barriers here Oct. 20, 25 to 30. It was the first loss for the Pelicans who defeated the Grizzlies earlier this season in a meet at Klamath Falls. This was the last meet for both clubs before the District meet at Klamath Falls Oct. 27. The victory brought the Grizzlies' season record to 4 wins 3 losses.

Gerald Brown took first place his seventh of the season, running the mile and eight tenths in 9:43. Piper of Klamath was second with a 9:48. Lawrence, Klamath turned in a 10:06 third place, with Jack Tyler fourth with a 10:09, just one small second behind Lawrence. Tom Price, another Grizzlie, was fifth with a 10:20 clocking.

Others who placed were: Vaagen (K) sixth; John Reid (A) 10:25; seventh; McGuire (A) 10:29; eighth; Sandavol (K) ninth; Dawkins (A) 10:37 tenth.

Cavekids Drop Grizzly Cubs

The Ashland Jayvees played host to the Grants Pass Jayvees on Oct. 22. In the game the Cavekids scored twice in the first part of the game.

In the middle of the second quarter Ashland scored the only touchdown with a 69-yard pass from Dave Barger to Roger Atherton who took the pass on the Grants Pass forty yard line and ran the rest of the way to pay dirt unmolested.

Grants Pass defeated Ashland by a score of 12-7.
