Three Senior Girls Receive Individual Honors, Awards

Connie Felger, Linda Leigh and Diane Williams, Ashland High seniors, each recently received individual awards for their citizenship and for participation in school activities.

D.A.R. Citizenship Award

On Monday, November 18, the members of the senior class were asked to select three girls who they felt possessed the following characteristics to an outstanding degree: dependability, service and leadership, and patriotism.

From the three girls nominated by their classmates, the faculty selected Connie Felger to receive the citizenship award, sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. In addition to being student body president Connie was the social chairman of the junior class last year. This year she is also a member of the National Honor Society, Pom-Pon Girls, and International Relations League; she is attending the Saturday classes at Southern Oregon College in the gifted and able student program and the Humanities Seminar. This summer she attended Girls' State. During her junior year she was a semi-finalist in the American Field Service Students Abroad program and a member of the Flag Girls.

BPW Award

Linda Leigh was chosen by the Business and Professional Woman's Club of Ashland as the first Girl of the Term. She was given a pin to wear until the next girl is chosen. Linda will then compete against the five other girls who will be chosen throughout the year for top honors.

Linda, who is the business manager and a correspondent of the Rogue News, is also secretary of the senior class and president of the Future Teachers of America Club. This year she is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council, Inter-Club Council, and Flag Girls. During the freshman year she was president of her class. Linda has been a member of the Orchestra all through high school except for the sophomore year.

During the sophomore year she was a member of the Debate Team and a member of Pep Club. As President of the F.T.A. Club she attended a conference held

AFS Picks Barb Jones

The local candidate for the American Field Service program this year is Barbara Jones, Ashland High junior.

Barbara was chosen on the basis of scholastic achievements as well as on personality.

In a recent interview, Barbara was asked what made her decide to apply for this program. She said, "The world today is in a very serious situation. We constantly face the threat of another world war. So many times I have asked myself, 'What can I do to contribute to world peace?' As a teenager, I can do little concerning governmental affairs. But, through the American Field Service, I can further increase the understanding among the young people of the world, and in a few years those people will become the leaders of their countries."

Barbara would prefer going to another country on the school program rather than the summer program because she feels she would have a better chance to get to know the country, the people, their ideas and their beliefs.

Barbara has no real preference as to what country she is sent to, but she feels it would be nice if she were sent to a Spanish-speaking country where she could further her knowledge of the language.

When asked how she felt about going, she replied "For several years now I have dreamed about going abroad through the American Field Service, but I realize that my chances are very slim! Right now it means everything to me, and if I should go, I would be very proud to represent my school and my country."

TIM THOMPSON

Tim Thompson was chosen by the student council to be the Boy of the Month for November. He received this honor because of his work and citizenship at Ashland Senior High School. Tim is the president of the National Honor Society, member of the Letterman's Club, and is active in varsity baseball. This summer at Boys' State Tim earned the top grade of 34/40 in the U.S. Civil Service Examination concerning U.S. government. Because of this score he received the honorary position of District Head of Civil Service Commission for Washington and Oregon.
